NEVER STOP GROWING

Matthew 18:3-4 - “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”

This summer I spent a week working at bible camp for 3rd and 4th graders. It is both exhausting and energizing. It is great to see the children’s energy, excitement and curiosity. I also had the privilege of hosting a question and answer class for that age group. These children asked some wonderfully insightful questions. You can see them really trying to connect all the dots in their minds and really put together the pieces of the puzzle of life and faith.

I wish we could all capture the enthusiasm these children have for life and for learning. Too often we lose the desire to learn. We stop studying and we stop asking questions and, as a result, we stop growing the way we could. Sometimes we lose our energy and excitement as we get caught up in our daily routines and the struggles of life.

Let us all try to retain or recapture the energy and enthusiasm for life and learning that we had as children. Let us maintain the humility that reminds us we do not have all the answers and we can still be growing in a way that pleases God. Let us all strive to glorify God and his kingdom.

Daryl, for the elders

From Neville's Desk...

WHERE IS YOUR FOCUS?

Having been born in a dry and thirsty land my soul yearns for abundant water. Now, looking out on the Atlantic Ocean it is impossible to miss its relentless power and abundant supply of joy and food.

Unfortunately, I observe that most of my fellow vacationers are focused on themselves or their technology. Several sit, reading a book, with their feet touching the incoming tide's edge. Others walk on that same edge reading email. It is strange because the main attraction, when your toes are touching the ocean should be the ocean. Right?

Amos 4:1-2 divides this strange phenomenon into two realities that will occur on the last, great day:

- For those who have arrogantly yearned for evil, it will be a burning oven.

- But for those who fear the Lord, it will be like a freed calf that had been penned up all its life.

Amos 4:1 (ESV) – “For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming shall set them ablaze, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall.

Friend, where is your focus?
