I SURRENDER ALL

*All to Jesus I surrender,
All to him I freely give,
I will ever love and trust him,
In his presence daily live.*

This is the beginning of the well known song found on page 662 in our Hymnal. In Psalm 37:7 we are told: Surrender yourselves to the Lord and wait patiently for Him.

Last week the Elders presented to you the budget for 2019 and we challenged you to be the church that God wants us to be. We talked about the churches in the New Testament. One did not have unity, one had left their first love, and another one was neither hot nor cold for the Lord; they were just lukewarm. You were challenged to guard that Summit did not fall into these habits; to make us a church that serves the Lord and strives to be a church of action.

Our Theme for 2019 is DISCIPLESHIP.

Discipleship is Obedience. Jesus said "If you love me, you will obey what I command." John 14:15. We were commanded to go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. You may not be able to go into other countries to teach and work, but what about your own neighborhood, your community, your church? What can you do to obey God's commands right here?

Discipleship is Prayer. We are praying for God to open doors for us in 2019. You don't feel comfortable talking to others? You can always talk to God. Pray that He will open the heart of the gentleman who owns the land adjoining our church. Pray for the impact that we could have in the community with an all-purpose building. Pray that God will send a youth minister or a couple to fit the needs of our church. Praying is a part of discipleship and you don't even need to leave your home to do it. Pray for the people in our community and our country. Pray for our leaders and our nation.

Discipleship is Love. 1 Corinthians 13 tells us the characteristics of Love. Patience and kindness are among those. You can be a disciple by showing Love and kindness everywhere you go and in all things you do. Do people you meet daily know you are a Christian by the way you talk and act? Our world needs the acts of kindness and love now more than ever.

Jesus said, "If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, ask what you will and I will give it to you." (John 15) You cannot remain in God's word if you are not daily reading the Bible. Make this the year that you increase your Bible study. Sunday night and Wednesday Bible studies are good ways to get into the word and to fellowship with other disciples.

Brothers and sisters, You are a disciple. Summit is your support and your help as you work to spread the Lord's message. Take that first step... Surrender All.

Bill for the Elders

JOURNEY TO JOY

The day the sad birds started circling over Jacob's head probably started like just any other day. But then the sons turn up with evidence for Jacob to identify. Through tear-drenched eyes, Jacob's broken heart sobs: "It is my son's robe. A fierce animal has devoured him. Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces" (Gen.37:33).

All his sons and daughters tried in vain to console Jacob. Instead, he said: "No, I shall go down to Sheol to my son, mourning" (Gen.37:35).

Grief hurts so bad! Friends say they understand – but they don't. From the depths of your soul, you realize that life as you knew it is over. In its wake is confusion and questions without answers. Even good people say unhelpful things. Your heart is shattered – and somewhere deep inside you realize your heart is going to need rebuilding and healing. It was because Jacob loved Joseph so deeply that the pain was so bad.

Yesterday, Billie Rogers shared this with me: "Grief never ends... But it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith... It is the price of love." — Unknown

For Jacob, and all of God's people, death is not the end. It took a while, but eventually, Jacob heard these joyous words: "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt" (Gen.45:26). To which he replied: "It is enough; Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die" (Gen.45:28).

Friend, soon and very soon a joy-filled day will arrive. Because everyone who lives and believes in Jesus Christ shall never die. Do you believe this (John 11:26)?

CAN'T WASTE TIME

by Andrew Ellis

Next Sunday is Super Bowl Sunday! Two of the best teams in the NFL will faceoff for the right to become Super Bowl Champions. Even though the game is a week away, many tasks have been completed. Game plans have been contemplated, players are preparing, and travel plans are being finalized. While there have already been many things done this past week, the work is far from over. Both teams will invest so much time and effort into the two weeks leading up to the Super Bowl. Both teams will not waste time. We should not waste time in making an impact through Christ.

Matthew 28:16-19 says, "Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

While the two teams in the Super Bowl will have two weeks to prepare for the game, we do not know how much time we are guaranteed. Let us count each day as a blessing to make a difference! Let's not waste time!

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

“WHO GUIDES OUR WAY”

by Nancy Carnes

I John 8:12 ESV: 12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

This past year I noticed several trees that needed to be cut down. It is not easy to guide a tree to fall in the direction you want. Dave would sometimes attach a long rope to the tree and the tractor to pull it in the direction he wanted it to go.

The same applies to our lives. We also need someone to guide us in the right direction or like a tree that falls on its own, we will land where we don't want and could cause a lot of damage.

We have the Word to guide our way so that we may help guide our children and others on the path that will lead them to everlasting Life with God, because if we don't, they could fall into everlasting torture with Satan. Jesus is our guide to follow-choose Him.
