RED & YELLOW, BLACK & WHITE

*Jesus loves the little children
All the children of the world
Red and yellow, black and white
They are precious in his sight
Jesus love the children of the world*

This song is known and loved by Christians from their earliest days. It, of course, refers to the fact that God's love is not influenced by physical characteristics, but by the heart. The song is solidly based in scripture as Paul says, "there is neither male nor female, Jew nor Greek..." (Galatians 3:28). There is more, however, that we can learn from the song.

God has made each of us with a unique set of characteristics and abilities. Some are outgoing while others keep to themselves. Some are emotional, others stoic. It is an easy trap to fall into where we judge our brothers and sisters by their differences. We have the tendency to view those who differ from us with some trepidation. We sometimes question their level of commitment, spirituality, and even their motives.

This ought not to be the case in Christ's Church. God has called us out of worldly thinking to be a holy people. He has placed within our number all the talents and personalities that we need to be His hands and feet and voice to the world.

The opposite side of that coin is that sometimes we judge ourselves because we don't have the same makeup as someone we respect. We doubt our ability to make a meaningful contribution to the work. This is every bit as dangerous and wrong as judging others. If we see ourselves as weak and insignificant, that is what we will be. We are all uniquely created and loved by God.

As disciples of Jesus, we all have the blessing of being part of his eternal purpose and plan. Don't sell yourself or others short.

FINDING RELIEF

There is a real need for Jesus Christ in our world. This has led to a populous filled with pain. They are thirsting for the living water that flows from only one source. However, as they search for their “balm of Gilead”, they find many who ensnare them by prescribing positive mental attitude or pills – which only serve to mask their pain. But what they really need is their Savior.

From the wilderness, the Prophet Cries out: Jeremiah 8:22 (ESV) Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of the daughter of my people not been restored?

To which the well-known African American Spiritual answers: There is a balm in Gilead To make the wounded whole; There is a balm in Gilead To heal the sin-sick soul.

In Psalm 31:1-2, David gives us a personal example of how he applies God’s medicine.

In you, O Lord, do I take REFUGE; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me! Incline your ear to me; RESCUE me speedily! Be a ROCK of REFUGE for me, a strong fortress to save me!

Friend, you have been carrying your burden too long! Right now, call to Him for RESCUE. Then run to Him, the ROCK of His REFUGE. The Rock of His Refuge is His Body in this World. Join us today!

DOES OUR PAST DETERMINE FUTURE RESULTS?

by Andrew Ellis

How many of us want to change something in our lives? Do we wish to lose weight? Do we wish to eat healthier? Do we wish to become smarter? Do we wish to improve ourselves as Christians? What are we doing to implement change in our lives?

Often times excuses are made by many as to why they cannot change. Why is this the case? There might be some who blame preexisting conditions. People might believe they cannot lose weight because they have always had a few extra pounds. Some people might believe they cannot become smarter because they have never viewed themselves as smart. Many people believe they cannot grow as a Christian or become a Christian because of their background. The reality is as Christians, no matter where we start, with God guiding our lives, there will be no barriers too big to overcome. Romans 8:28 says, “And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.”

While each of us should be accountable for ourselves, we can have an impact on our brothers and sisters in Christ. We can encourage them to overcome their difficult situations. 1 Thessalonians 5:11 says, “Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.”

No matter where we start, we can find the results we are searching for in our lives. Let us strive to change for the better!
