It is amazing how much new growth we have seen at Summit since the beginning of the year. The obvious growth has been the 8 baptisms. This week I observed Bill Herald, Sr. teaching the Gospel using a long-playing record and old Jule Miller Film Strips. As Tom Painter says: "we have no excuse". I also observed Dana Fuller insisting on being baptized—even after suffering five strokes.

The not so obvious growth has been the internal change that has been taking place. Summit has become a stronger Body.

Learning from past Satanic Attacks is what prepares us for current and future victories. Consider lessons from Numbers 16.

Satan uses one seemingly faithful follower to hurt many by playing to an audience. In front of 250 leaders, Korah lays a false, but believable accusation (Num.16:1-3).

Immediately, Moses "fell on his face". I assume Moses was consulting with God in prayer because when he spoke, he not only had the solution, but he had also nailed the real problem (Num.16:4-11). Moses brought to light that Korah was filled with ingratitude and greed. As Levites, they were to serve the tabernacle. God had given them this ministry and they were taking it for granted. Instead of being grateful they were after Aaron's priesthood. The problem was that God had never called them to this role.

After this, the “Monday morning quarterbacks” become visible (Num.16:12-14). Real leaders try their best. They are never perfect. So, it is shameful to second guess their tough decisions, especially after the fact.

God dealt with Korah and his two co-conspirators by causing the earth to swallow them up. But 14,700 were still infected. So, they were killed in a plague.

Friend, with gratitude in your hearts, focus on what God has called you to do. It may not be something you are passionate about. But it is something you are good at and that you can accomplish with the least amount of effort.

TEACHING ROCKET SAVE THE DATE

BE A BETTER BIBLE TEACHER. BE A BETTER BIBLE STUDENT

Have you ever felt that you were not fully equipped to teach the Bible? Have you ever wished that you could feel more confident in sharing God's word in an engaging and convicting way? Do you want to be a better Bible student, but you're not sure where to start? We are excited to announce that Summit will be hosting Teaching Rocket! Michael Whitworth will be coming in from Ft. Worth TX to share ideas on how to be a better student and teacher of God's word.

Please mark your calendar for Sunday, June 30, 10:00 AM - 4:30 PM.

Lunch and childcare will be provided.

See Laura Doerr or Jenny Guin with questions.

HOPE THAT IS BUILT TO LAST

by Andrew Ellis

Baseball season just began this past week. Ever since I was a kid, I was excited about the start of a new baseball season. Of all the sports that I follow, the beginning of baseball season is one of the most unique. There is a certain level of excitement with each team and their fans no matter the expectations that exist. From a preseason World Series favorite to a team that is viewed as a bottom of the barrel team, there is a certain level of optimism that abides with teams and fans. There is hope that things will be better moving forward. While there is hope early on, things change as the season progresses. Fans of teams who are not winning tend to lose hope as the season goes on.

As Christians, there is a hope that no matter our circumstances, things will be better in the future. Jeremiah 29:11 says, “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.” When we read this verse how can we not be optimistic? God has plans for each of us. He will use each of us in ways we knew we were capable of and ways we did not know we were capable of overall. While we are told that we have hope, we are told to withstand any obstacle we face and be continuous in prayer. Romans 12:12 says, “Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.” No matter the circumstances, we should not lose our hope in that God has plans for us.

Several fans across the world have hope that their favorite baseball team will accomplish the goals set before them. Through Christ, we have a hope for eternal life. That is a hope that is built to last.

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

“OUR ACTIONS STAND OUT”

by Nancy Carnes

1 John 3:18 ESV: 18 Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

As we drive home, we pass this house where we see four white ducks with a black chicken together. I don't know if the chicken thinks it's a duck or thinks there's safety in numbers, but I know that it stands out among the ducks.

Do we also stand out when we are in among people going about our life? Do our actions show what type of person we are? There is an old saying that actions speak louder than words. Do our actions speak about the good Christian person or do they let anger, frustration, impatience, or other things rule our actions so that people question our Christianity?

Do our actions show our love for God and each other, or do they show our love for the world of Satan? Do we try as they say “fit in” and act the way Satan would have us do? Do we want our actions to revolve around this world or to point ourselves and others toward the new world we are promised if we act for God?

It all boils down to; do we stand out as Godly people or worldly people?
