WONDERFULLY MADE

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.<sup>[a]</sup>

Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

Psalm 139:14

There is a habit that my family loves to tease me about. When it comes to furniture, quality is at the top of my list. The way I gauge the quality of a piece of furniture is by opening a drawer and pushing on the bottom. If it is flimsy, I know the overall quality is lacking. If it is firm, I have confidence that the quality is good. Furniture with solid drawer bottoms lasts a long time.

When it comes to making people, God is the master craftsman. He not only uses the best materials with the finest workmanship, but he custom designs each one of us for unique purposes; and, he gives both an eternal guarantee and a lifetime service plan. We were made to be thoroughly used in God's eternal plan to redeem all of mankind. We are not museum pieces, but useful masterpieces of everyday life.

Only two things can go wrong with us. 1) We doubt how unique and wonderful we are because of societies hang ups about what is beautiful and precious. So, we don't live out our purpose. 2) We discard the purpose God designed us for in order to follow a path of ease and self-fulfillment.

You are God's wonderful creation, made to reflect his love into a dark world. Embrace your gifts and purpose, and your life will be more than you can imagine or plan!

Tom, for the Elders

From Neville's Desk...

WE'RE WHAT WE EAT

We become what we project ... because whatever is in our heart will boomerang back to us – good or bad. Jesus took this teaching to a deeper level – costing Him many disciples (John 6:66).

John 6 (ESV) — 48 I am the bread of life. ... 52 The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. ... 56 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.

So, practically speaking, how does this work? First, we eat His Body by daily reading His word (the bread of life). Second, through continuous confession, we drink His blood (allowing Him to drink the cup of our judgment). Third, we monitor everything we eat after that (by taking every thought captive, 2 Cor.10:5).

Friend, would you consider replacing toxic lies with God's truth? For instance: If the toxic lie is "I cannot give up this sin" – replace it with: "We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him" (1 John 5:18 ESV).

"APRIL FOOLS!"

by Steve Proctor

April 1st is probably the only day of the year we look at the internet with skepticism. We're pretty sure everything we see is a clever prank or joke to trick us. Chris announces his new position with the Dodgers, actors give away huge spoilers for their show's upcoming season, and all kinds of good-humored pranks just to have some fun. We actually enjoy being fooled occasionally.

Unfortunately, on April 2nd we go back to believing everything we read on the internet. Posting a status on your Facebook wall has some legal bearing on your account (it doesn't) because somebody said their cousin, who is a lawyer (they aren't), said so, or that a great way to charge your new iPhone is to put in the microwave for one minute (don't do it unless you like really expensive fireworks) are all things that some people will believe without reserve because they were told by someone on the internet.

We must be even more careful about what we believe when it comes to our salvation. Repeatedly the early Church was told to test the spirits, and fact check the preachers. We have the same responsibility today. If we just believe whatever we are told by anyone in a suit standing in a pulpit, we'll be in a world of hurt when our time comes for judgement. Any preacher worth his salt will admit mis-speaking during a lesson, sermon, or study. And don't be surprised that there are many people who blatantly lie about the Word. Just this week a famous actress has begun telling the world that God is okay with abortion and she's backed up by a group of "ministers" who "blessed" an abortion clinic since they claim abortion can be a "godly" thing.

Don't believe everything you hear.

I John 4:1 "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world."
