HE AROSE!

...He arose a victor from the dark domain, and he lives forever with his saints to reign.

This is from a song in our hymnals that we often sing before the Lord's Supper. It is one of my favorites to sing as it starts out slow and mournful, then when it tells of Jesus coming out of the grave it gets faster and joyful.

Jesus' death was prophesied in the Old Testament. In Psalms it was said that His hands and feet will be pierced. Psalms 34 said not one of His bones will be broken. The book of Isaiah described what would happen to Jesus. He was brought as a lamb before the slaughter. His appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, his form marred beyond human likeness as he was spit upon and people hit him with their fists.

Jesus was flogged. Flogging is done with a leather whip with sharp bones or metal objects on the end, used to rip or tear the skin from the body. Often times this form of punishment caused death. Isaiah 53 said he would be oppressed and afflicted yet he did not open his mouth.

We don't like to think of the pain or suffering that our Lord and Savior went through, but remember that He died on the cross for our sins, and by his wounds we are healed.

1 Cor 1:18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the Power of God.

Brothers and sisters, this morning when you take the Lord's Supper remember what Jesus did for us. Realize that the pain and suffering He went through was for you. Jesus took up our infirmities; Jesus was pierced for our transgressions; Jesus was crushed for our iniquities.

...He Arose! He Arose!
Hallelujah!
Christ Arose!

THE FIRST CHRISTIAN FUNERAL EVER

This morning a dear friend from the Oklahoma Panhandle needed help. He has been asked to officiate over his first funeral ever. This got me thinking about the first Christian funeral ever.

Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome had left their homes early Sunday morning, to anoint Christ's Body. In their minds was a troubling question: "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" (Mark 16:3, ESV)

This Sunday many pilgrims will gather with the pious. What they will find is unknown. Yet, they will make their pious pilgrimage regardless.

At the first Christian funeral ever, our obedient ladies

"OUR BEST EFFORT EVERY DAY"

BY ANDREW ELLIS

As many of us know today is Easter. Leading up to this holiday, there is a lot of planning. Many are planning Easter egg hunts, organizing Easter dinners, putting together Easter baskets, and even laying out what will be worn to church on Easter Sunday. There will be a lot of effort put into the preparation for things related to Easter. Can this same effort be put forth every day?

While Easter Sunday is the day we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and our best efforts should be put forward, we should put forth the same effort not only during all services but every day. Our Christian light should always be shining and we should strive to make sure it is consistently shining every day. 2 Peter 1:5-10 says, were astounded by what they discovered. The Body of Christ was not in the tomb and the stone had been rolled away. In its place they were given an Angelic message of comfort: Mark 16:6-7 (ESV) And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.

Friend, it is my sincere hope that you will return from your pious pilgrimage being able to say: "It has been great to be here; I am glad I came!"

1 The Mausoleum where my Dad's remains rest

"For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to confirm your calling and election, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall."

To an extent, it is easy to get motivated to be ready for Easter Sunday. What about any other Sunday? What about any other day? Why should our best efforts be limited to specific days? As Christians, our best efforts should be put forth every day. What is holding us back from doing this every day?
