BALDING by Neville Buchanan

There comes a time when it becomes obvious that something must be done. For me, it was this week. My embarrassment peaked when I had to pull over (on highway 27) to fill up the air on my left front bald tire. One of our fellow Sunday worshipers even spotted me and offered to help. So, the next person I spoke to was Tire Discounters. However, for my safety, he insisted on changing out both front tires. Why did I put up with a balding tire so long?

Friend, what should we do about the spiritual balding areas in our lives?

Speaking through the prophet Joel, God says:

Joel 2:12–13 (ESV) — 12 “Yet even now,” declares the LORD, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; 13 and rend your hearts and not your garments.” Return to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster.

God does not want us to buy those cheap old tires next to the road. Nor does He want us to get the retread tires. Instead, He tells us exactly what to do to make ourselves new:

- “Yet even now” – make no mistake, this is a time sensitive matter. In Joel’s day, it was referred to as the “day of the Lord” (1:15; 2:1,11, 31; 3:14). The 1st application was God’s current fierce anger towards His enemies. The 2nd was the day Jesus came into the world – during the time of Herod. For us, those two events have passed. There is very little time left.
 - “Return to me” – not to a toxic friend or situation.
 - “With all your heart” – your whole being in complete loyalty. God will not share you. It is all or nothing!
 - This will require:
 - o Fasting (what you put into your body must cease).
 - o Crying (what must come out of your body is tears).
 - o Mourning (a deep form of internal regretful grief).
 - In other words, “rend your hearts and not your garments”. You must change from the inside. A facade will just not do!

At this point, Joel begs the people to “return to the LORD your God”. As with my tires, you might be procrastinating – making up excuses as to why you should not ACT NOW!

- It will cost too much – But Joel says YAHWEH is “gracious”.
- I am too far gone – but YAHWEH is “merciful”.
- He will be angry – YAHWEH is “slow to anger”.
- He will be harsh – YAHWEH is “abounding in steadfast love”.
- He could not possibly overlook this – “and he relents over disaster”.

Friend, those balding tires are starting to look bad! Your life is unraveling before your very eyes. So, what is keeping you from rending your heart, right now, so that Jesus, (who is seated on the throne) – can make “all things new” (Rev.21:5)?

Lord, today I return to you with all my heart. I pledge to starve my passions, see my tears, Lord, hear my mourning. Dear, Father in heaven, restore my soul – make me new. Through Your Son and My Savior, I pray. Amen.

TEACHING ROCKET SAVE THE DATE

BE A BETTER BIBLE TEACHER. BE A BETTER BIBLE STUDENT

Do you want to be a better Bible student, but you're not sure where to start? We are excited to announce that Summit will be hosting Teaching Rocket! Michael Whitworth will be coming in from Ft. Worth TX to share ideas on how to be a better student and teacher of God's word.

Please mark your calendar for Sunday, June 30, 10:00 AM - 4:30 PM.

Lunch and childcare will be provided.

“PROSPERITY?” BY STEVE PROCTOR

In Ill John 2, John prays for his friend to prosper. Specifically, he prays that he would prosper physically “just as your soul prospers.” If John prayed this for us would it be a blessing or a curse?

In Gaius’ case the blessing would be great. John knows his friend is prospering spiritually. Should John’s prayer be granted, it seems that Gaius would be a very rich man. After all, he walked in the truth and the truth abode in him.

Does the truth abide in us? Do we walk in the truth? Do our souls prosper? How would our checking accounts change if John’s prayer were answered on our behalf? Would we rival Bill Gates or Warren Buffett? Or would we be begging for change while all our checks bounced?

ARK ENCOUNTER OVERNIGHT TRIP!

The Summit Youth Group will be spending the night on the Ark in Williamstown, KY on Friday, May 31st.

We will have the entire Ark to ourselves as we take a guided walk-through tour, do a scavenger hunt, watch a movie, and visit the live animals in the Zoo.

Sleeping arrangements are on the floor. Participants will need to bring their own bedding (ie. Sleeping bags, blankets, pillows). Girls will sleep on deck 2 and boys will sleep on deck 3. Bedding and shower facilities are not provided. Air mattresses are for chaperones only, and cots or hammocks are not allowed.

The cost to you is $30 per person, which includes the whole overnight experience and breakfast. If you are interested in going to this unique experience, please contact Chris or Jenny Guin.

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

“MY HOME IS YOUR HOME” by Nancy Carnes

Hebrews 13:2; Romans 12:13

This was one of the most beautiful invitations I have ever received from a man who had to leave his home and move to another country. He was willing to share his new home with us. It made me feel humble and it made me wonder: do I invite someone into my home, do I welcome them and make them feel at home, am I willing to share my home, do I make them feel comfortable or do I make them feel I can't wait for them to leave.

What about my church home; do I make someone visiting feel welcome? Do I talk to them, take an interest in them, let them know I'm glad they came and show them we are a friendly family of Christians who are willing to share our home; or do I ignore them, treat them as outsiders so that they feel uncomfortable, wish they had not come and will not come again. I pray not.

I do wish for Soto and Zaida to be welcomed and find peace and contentment in their new home, and when they visit here again that my home is their home.

Also, when the time comes for me to meet Jesus, I want to hear Him say “My Home is Your Home”.
