MEMORIES by Neville Buchanan

Memories are funny things – they can produce a wide array of emotions. This week I was invited to view my school's new alma mater page. One of the first things I observed was a picture of my Dad, with the date he was chairman of the board. This elicited many memories that produced immense pride and a tad of sadness.

Memories are moments in time that make up our story, becoming our personal portable diary. Consider Mary's emotional experience with her child. First, at his birth. "But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart" (Lk.2:19 ESV). And then as a "rebellious" preteen. "Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress ... And his mother treasured up all these things in her heart" (Lk.2:48-51 ESV). Long before the invention of photographs, Mary had her own portable memory book – her memory.

Memories can become unhealthy when they anchor us to deep hurts of the past. Somethings are best left in the past. For instance, one suffering from PTSD can get "stuck" because of survivors' guilt. Instead, we ought to take every thought captive (2 Cor.10:5) and choose to focus on the good of the present (Phil.4:8). The best way to do this is: confess (1 John 1:9); receive forgiveness (Heb.10:17); accept your renewed life (2 Cor.5:17; Gal.2:20); & leave the past where it belongs (Lk.9:62; Phil.3:13 "Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus").

So, what memories are good for us to focus on?

First, remember how hopeless and useless we were before we became Christians, (1 Cor.1:26 "My dear friends, remember what you were when God chose you").

Second, remember our salvation, (Heb.2:3 "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation"...).

Third, weekly (not weakly) remember Christ death by joining His church as together we partake of the Lord Supper – every first day of the week (Acts 20:7).

Friend, may God bless you with memories that are healthy, vivid, and heartwarming.

ARK ENCOUNTER OVERNIGHT TRIP!

The Summit Youth Group will be spending the night on the Ark in Williamstown, KY on Friday, May 31st.

We will have the entire Ark to ourselves as we take a guided walk-through tour, do a scavenger hunt, watch a movie, and visit the live animals in the Zoo.

Sleeping arrangements are on the floor. Participants will need to bring their own bedding (i.e. Sleeping bags, blankets, pillows). Girls will sleep on deck 2 and boys will sleep on deck 3. Bedding and shower facilities are not provided. Air mattresses are for chaperones only, and cots or hammocks are not allowed.

The cost to you is $30 per person, which includes the whole overnight experience and breakfast. If you are interested in going to this unique experience, please contact Chris or Jenny Guin.

TEACHING ROCKET SAVE THE DATE

BE A BETTER BIBLE TEACHER. BE A BETTER BIBLE STUDENT

Do you want to be a better Bible student, but you're not sure where to start? We are excited to announce that Summit will be hosting Teaching Rocket! Michael Whitworth will be coming in from Ft. Worth TX to share ideas on how to be a better student and teacher of God's word.

Please mark your calendar for

THE ATTITUDE OF CHRIST

by Brad Herald

At work the other day one of my teammates sent out this motivational quote from Hall of Fame college football coach Lou Holtz:

"Ability determines what you can do. Motivation determines what you will do. Attitude determines how well you do it."

While I'm sure the purpose of this adage was to encourage young men to play better football, or to inspire college graduates, this could be a motto that we can all live by to become stronger Christians.

1 Corinthians 10:13 (ESV) "No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it."

The Christian life was never promised to be an easy way to live. We are told that as Christians we are still going to experience trials and tribulations, but we have all the ability to overcome through Christ.

Philippians 3:14 (NIV) "I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."

As Christians, our motivation should be to know Jesus, to be like Jesus, and to be with Jesus.

No one is ever going to be perfect here on Earth, but rather than dwelling on our own weaknesses or looking for faults in others, as Christians we should strive to have an attitude of Christ.

If we have an attitude of Christ and the motivation to seek Him, He is able to save completely.
