Blessed are ...

<sup>2</sup> *And he opened his mouth and taught them,
saying:*

<sup>3</sup> *"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the

of heaven.*

<sup>11</sup> "Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

These first words of the public ministry of Jesus belong at the top of the list of the most subversive statements ever made. They are more powerful than "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal...", "We the people ..." or "I have a dream". They cut to the heart of the principles that societies are built upon: self-gratification, self-preservation, and success through strength. If it is true that the meek will succeed in life, not the aggressive, then most of us have been playing by the wrong rules for our whole lives. When the most basic rules of life are changed, then everything changes.

If you have read this far, then it is safe to assume you hold the belief that the Word of God is true. BUT, do you believe it? What if it isn't just a theological treatise to be affirmed, but is actually true in real life? Does that change things? Has that truth penetrated your assumptions and attitudes? Have they changed not just your behaviors, but your world view? For example, have you embraced the fact that being merciful to someone is vastly more important than convincing him/her that they are wrong? Has being merciful taken a higher place in your life than being right?

I hope you will wrestle with each of the nine "blessed are" statements, asking yourself, "What if this really is the way the world works?" "Have I been going about life all wrong?" These statements will change whole nations one heart at a time. Are you next?

Tom, for the elders

From Neville's Desk...

A POWERFUL PRAYER

This week a troubled soul asked me for prayer from scripture. This soul is shackled to a spouse whose life is spiraling out of control. As Tom Painter observed yesterday: "You cannot live in two houses at the same time." My takeaway was that we must leave Satan's house to live in God's home.

Paul prays such a prayer for the Christians at Thessalonica – who were striving to soar towards heaven while searing from Satan's fiery darts. Specifically, these new converts needed to know: How to handle hardships (3:3-5); Schooling on saintly living (4:1-12); And guarantees for those gone to be with God (4:13-18). To this church, Paul PRAYS for an increasing LOVE (3:12) that moves into HOLINESS (3:13).

1 Thessalonians 3:11–13 (ESV) — 11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, 12 and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, 13 so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Friend, would you too pray that our God and Father make us "increase and abound in love for one another" as we individually loosen ourselves from hell bound habits, "so that he may establish" our "hearts blameless in holiness".

Application: Are you close to a soul living in "Satan's house"? Instead of being impatient, try to gently warn & then selflessly love the person back into His Body. At the same time, set your soul free by accepting that, after you have warned said soul, you are only responsible for your own soul (Eze.3:18-21).

MAKE THE TIME

by Andrew Ellis

A few weeks ago, a commercial came across the TV that stood out to me. This commercial was advertising some exercise equipment. It implied the number one reason people do not exercise is because of time. In my opinion, time is the most valuable asset anyone can have. Time can be difficult to manage. While time can be difficult to manage it is not impossible to do so. We have the ability to create time for things that are important in our lives.

Have we ever created time to draw closer to God? Do we create time to go to God in prayer daily? Have we ever created time in our busy schedules to read the Bible daily? We are told to make good use of our time. Ephesians 5:15-17 says, “Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.”

What is holding us back from drawing closer to God? What are we doing to make it part of our daily schedule? We need to create the time. Once we create the time it is up to us to put in the effort. All though there are more potential distractions than ever before let us be sure it is not distracting us from our relationship with God.

TEACHING ROCKET SEMINAR

Is there something lacking in your Bible class? Is it as engaging or convicting as it could be? Do you find yourself attending Bible class out of habit or compulsion, but not much else?

Are you a teacher who feels burned out, ill-trained, or unqualified? Is it tough putting together a lesson each week? Are you frustrated by a lack of discussion or engagement from your students?

On June 30, I'm excited to be at Summit Church of Christ for TEACHING ROCKET, a training seminar for those who want to be a better Bible teacher or student. Our first session will explore the goals of a good Bible class program. Why exactly do we come together for Bible study on Sunday morning/Wednesday night? What are we trying to accomplish? A healthy Bible class program needs clearly defined goals, and we'll talk about what those should be.

In the other sessions, we'll explore how to prepare and deliver a Bible lesson. I'll take you through several exercises that will equip you to generate your own lesson material from scratch week in and week out. Finally, we'll wrap up with a discussion on classroom dynamics. I've known a lot of people who were reluctant to teach because the prospect of teaching others intimidated them. How do I connect with my students? How do I ask engaging, thought-provoking questions that spark discussion? How do I handle class disrupters?

If you have no desire to become a class teacher, I want to encourage you to attend anyway. This seminar is for more than teachers; it's great for anyone who wants to be a better Bible student. Much of what we discuss will help you mine the riches of Scripture for yourself. Whether you want to be a better Bible student or teacher, I hope to see you on June 30!

— Michael Whitworth

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

“Let the Sun Shine”

by Nancy Carnes

Ecclesiastes 11:7 says, “Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.”

I love to see the sunshine the Lord gives me to brighten my days. I seem to have more energy to accomplish what I need to do.

I know there are some who never seem to notice the sunshine. These unhappy people never seem to see anything good or find any joy in their days. You may know someone like this. They are like Eeyore in Winnie-the-Pooh who walk around with a cloud hanging over their heads who only see the negative.

I know that the sun won't always be shining, that we will have rainy days in our lifetime, but up above the clouds the sun is waiting, so that although the days seem dreary, as little orphan Annie said, “the sun will come out tomorrow”. The rain will stop, the clouds will open, and the sun will shine again and brighten our day as the Lord intended. We can always have sunshine in our souls when we let Jesus rule our hearts.
