SERVING THE LORD

Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus. 1 Tim 3:13

Today the eldership brings before the family at Summit the names of three men to serve as deacons.

-Steve Proctor, his wife Candy and their 3 children, Gage, Maddox, and Morgan. Steve is currently directing our education ministry.

-Jim Painter, his wife Carissa and their 2 children, Eli and Alexa. Jim is currently running our special events and taking care of our fellowship meals.

-Jimmy Hutchings, his wife Laura and their 2 children, Caleb and Cade. Jimmy is currently our safety coordinator.

1 Tim 3:8-11 Deacons, likewise, are to be men worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine and not pursuing dishonest gain. They must keep hold of the deep truths of the Faith with a clear conscience. They first must be tested and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as Deacons. In the same way, their wives are to be women worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything.

Brothers and Sisters, as you can see by these four verses we have selected three good men. These three also have faithful wives and have children who love the Lord. We have been through this process for the last four months interviewing and talking with several men from our congregation. Some felt they had other commitments that would not allow them to fully serve at this time. After much prayer, we feel these three men are worthy to be Summit's next Deacons.

If you are in opposition of any of these men holding the position of deacon at this time, we ask you to write your concerns in letter form and give it to the Elders before 8/24. If there are no objections, we will appoint these men during our Sunday morning worship on August 25th.

*Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor,
SERVING THE LORD. Rom 12:11*

Bill, for the elders

NARCISSIST'S CURSE

This past Tuesday afternoon I was seeing a client out when a couple came walking towards me. Now the problem was they thought they had scheduled a session – but they had not. To make it worse, I had the next couple lined up, via Zoom, from a different continent.

Friend, what do you do when scheduling conflicts arise? Solomon says that “the heart of man plans his way, but the Lord establishes his steps” (Proverbs 16:9). So, a better question would be, how do we remain open to the Lord establishing our steps?

In this world, there are two kinds of people – givers and takers. Givers always put the needs of others ahead of their own – even when they are being mistreated (Mt.5:44). Users always take. They continually feel sorry for themselves and ultimately end up all alone. After all, just how long can anyone survive in the presence of someone with narcissistic personality disorder (an excessive need for admiration, disregard for others' feelings, an inability to handle any criticism, and a sense of entitlement)?

However, the givers of this world are always taken for

A SAVING DIFFERENCE by Brad Herald

Listening to K-Love on the radio in the car the other day I heard a story about a little boy and a school of starfish that I would like to share.

The story goes that there was a little boy at the beach and an older gentleman noticed the boy would walk two or three steps, stop, pick something up and throw it in the ocean. After the old man noticed the boy do this for several minutes he went over and asked him what he was doing. The boy explained that he kept finding starfish on the beach and he was “saving” the starfish by putting them back in the water. The old man stopped the little boy, pointed forward to show him that there were starfish lining the beach as far as they could see and said he should quit because he couldn't make a difference anyway. The little boy stopped for a moment, took a step, picked up another starfish, put it granted and often treated cruelly by the takers. So, the givers may find themselves wondering just how much longer they can endure. To them, David, the sweet psalmist of Israel writes:

Psalm 37:21–24 (ESV) The wicked borrows but does not pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives; for those blessed by the LORD shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off. The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD upholds his hand.

My Blessed Friend, NEVER GIVE UP! Instead, focus only on taking up your daily cross and Jesus will hold you up with His strong right hand.

back in the ocean and then looked at the old man and said, “Well, I made a difference to that one.”

As the Parable of the Lost Sheep teaches us, God's love for each of us is so great that He seeks out each one of us individually and rejoices when we are saved. Before you were a believer, God sought you because you are worthwhile. God loved us so much that He sent His one and only son to die on the cross for each of us individually. Can you imagine Jesus looking at your life and saying, “Well, I made a difference to that one!”

As Christians, we need to show the love of Christ by having a heart like the little boy in the “starfish story”.
