SERVANTS AMONG US

Deacons likewise must be dignified, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain. ⁹ They must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.¹⁰ And let them also be tested first; then let them serve as deacons if they prove themselves blameless. ¹¹ Their wives likewise must be dignified, not slanderers, but sober-minded, faithful in all things. ¹² Let deacons each be the husband of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. ¹³ For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus. -- 1 Timothy 3:8-13

Today Christ's church that meets together here will designate three additional men to serve as deacons. The guidelines given by the Holy Spirit through Paul are not easily or quickly attained. The man and his wife who meets these qualifications has sacrificed the pleasure of popularity for the challenge of service. The Summit family is blessed to have so many Godly men who choose to serve in God's work among us.

These men will be given specific tasks and ministries to coordinate. They can't and shouldn't do it alone. Please take a look at the list of deacons/ministry leaders to the left of this article. Encourage those men in their work. Even better, find a ministry that matches your gifts and then ask the leader of it to put you to work. You will never regret laying up treasure in heaven.

FEEDING THE FLOCK

What an incredible evening of fun, food, and fellowship. Last Sunday evening we had over 50 brothers and sisters in Christ in our home. So many precious memories were created. Bill and Daryl led us in prayer. Tom read our devotional text. And Chris Guin led the singing. All the while Douwene, Jenny, and few other dear sisters were getting the Skyline Chili ready for prime time.

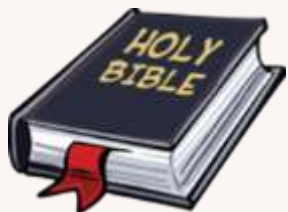

Two thousand years ago a multitude (5000 men plus families) followed Jesus to the banks of the Galilean sea. Jesus asked Philip to provide food for them. But instead of seeing this as a positive opportunity to meet needs, he instead gave a pessimistic reply. John 6:7 (ESV) Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread would not be enough for each of them to get a little."

Fortunately, Andrew was slightly more resourceful: John 6:9 (ESV) "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they for so many?" So, Jesus changed their scarce resources to an abundant surplus.

Friend, Jesus still sees the deep needs around us and still asks us to help. John 6:5 (ESV) Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?"

What is your answer?

- Is it pessimistically fearful because you're focused on scarcity?
- Or positively faithful because you're focused on His sufficiency?

THE DIFFERENCE

By Andrew Ellis

Matthew 28:16-20 says, "Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'"

The above scriptures are what is known as, "The Great Commission." We read about the instructions Jesus gave his disciples. He told them to go out and preach the gospel to all nations. When we put Christ on in baptism, we take on the same responsibility. What are we doing to fulfill this duty? Sometimes it might be difficult to approach someone and discuss the Word of God. It might be difficult to talk about our faith to people who do not go to church. Our words and actions can have an impact on others. Sharing the gospel can make a difference to many. Some do not wish to hear about the Word of God. There could be some who will listen to the Word of God. Sharing the gospel could be the difference in someone turning their life over to Christ.

What are we doing to teach the gospel to all? What difference are we making?
