IN THE COOL OF THE DAY

Neville Buchanan

Everything is perfect. Our days are not too hot, nor the nights too cold. The early morning air has a refreshing briskness to it and the trees have beautiful golden leaves.

But even more beautiful is that we can wake to the voice of God speaking to us through His ancient Words. This is how it was for our earthly ancestors 6000 years ago. In the most perfect world imaginable they heard their God walking one more time towards them in the COOL OF THE DAY (Genesis 3:8a).

Soon winter's sinful barren wasteland would descend on them. Soon they would spiral all their ancestors into the confusing chaos of sin. As the Apostle Paul would say: "For I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. ... For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing" (Romans 7:15, 19 ESV)).

Friend, you can either do what Adam and Eve did and hide (Genesis 3:8b) or you can choose to step out into the light (1 John 1:7). Instead of hiding our sins, God promises that if we confess them, He will forgive us (1 John 1:9).

"GAZELLE-LIKE INTENSITY"

by Brad Herald

In our second session of Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University program we were taught about paying off debt. During the instructional video Dave quoted Proverbs 6:4-5.

(NIV) "4Allow no sleep to your eyes, no slumber to your eyelids. 5Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler."

His point was that we need to work hard and have the same level of "intensity" to get out of debt as the gazelle has when it is fleeing for its life. As Christians, we should have this same "gazelle intensity" about our faith. We know it is a matter of everlasting life or eternal destruction.

He then stated it in a very practical kind of way, "you can wander into debt, but you can't wander out." Dave's point is that we need to be intentional with our money and take control over our finances, so our finances and our debtors do not control us. As Christians we should be intentional with our faith and take control over our actions.

"You can wander into debt (sin), but you can't wander out."
