MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION

So Aaron took it as Moses said and ran into the midst of the assembly. And behold, the plague had already begun among the people. And he put on the incense and made atonement for the people. And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped. - Numbers 16:47-48

Over the past year we have watched in horror as ISIS militants have committed atrocities on a scale not seen since Nazi Germany nearly annihilated the Jews of Europe. The brutality and bloodshed leaves Christians and secularists alike stunned by the carnage. We wonder on Facebook and to our coworkers, will it ever be stopped? The plague of ISIS continues to sweep across the Middle East. We pray each week for family and friends who are serving God and our nation in Turkey, not far from the atrocities.

I don't pretend to have an answer for the terrorist aggression of ISIS, but there is a much more severe plague that is in our backyard that demands our attention. The plague is sin that separates almost everyone we know from the living God! Our friends, family, coworkers, and neighbors are losing their eternal lives because they live in open rebellion against the Creator. We are much too passive about this reality! If ISIS were pushing into our area, we would do everything possible to push them back. But a far more dangerous plague is left unchallenged.

In the passage above, Israel had rebelled against God bringing a plague to sweep across the camp, killing everyone as it went. Notice what Aaron did, he ran toward the plague to make atonement for the people's sin. The text says he literally stood between the living and the dead. Imagine how hard he pushed himself to get to the plague before it consumed another row of people. When it was done, did he wonder if he could have run just a little faster and have saved more people? Did he regret the extra serving of fried manna he had for breakfast?

This is certainly a foreshadowing of what Christ would do centuries later as he emptied himself of heaven's privilege and dove head long into our world to make atonement for our sin. The plague of sin continues to claim victims every moment of the day. What are we to do? Should we huddle together and count our blessings that we are among the saved? No way! We must follow the example of Jesus and rush into the world to point everyone to Jesus. Don't stand before God wondering if there was one more thing you could have done to save a friend from eternity away from God's presence.

*Lead me to some soul today,
O teach me, Lord, just what to say;
Friends of mine are lost in sin,
And cannot find their way.
Few there are who seem to care,
And few there are who pray;
Melt my heart, and fill my life,
Give me one soul today.*

ARE YOU TECHNO OR TECH-NO?

Yesterday, Douwene and I took the first step towards becoming Tech-No. We did this by cutting the worlds umbilical cord into our home. Truth be told, we did this because Financial Peace suggested that we cut the Cable.

Limiting screen time is an opportunity to increase study time. God does not share our passions with anyone or anything else. We are to love Him with all our heart, soul, and mind (Mt.22:37f). Shockingly, however, many Christians have turned their Godly passions towards insatiable & lustful worldly screens.

Jeremiah 2:12-13 (ESV) — 12 Be appalled, O heavens, at this; be shocked, be utterly desolate, declares the LORD, 13 for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water.

Are you addicted to the screens in your life? Do they interfere with your daily activities? Are you more with virtual friends than real friends? Is screen time your main source of happiness? Is the quality of your work suffering? Are you uneasy if you cannot find your "dumb phone"? Do those close to you say you are online too much? Does it involve risky behavior and secrets?

So, how do we cut back?

- Cut the cord to your home.
- Turn off notifications.
- Place device in a different room.
- Turn off phone use at the office or school, and church. And set time limits.
- Create no-phone zones (church, bedroom, dining room table, etc.).
- Create intermittent fasting from the phone.
- Install the "Moment" app – a screen time tracker.
- Finally, uninstall addictive apps (games), unhealthy apps (TikTok) and risky behavior apps.

Now, friend, you are ready to return to your patiently waiting and ever-loving heavenly Father. With all the extra time you have, meditate on the following words:

"BE STILL, AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD. I WILL BE EXALTED AMONG THE NATIONS, I WILL BE EXALTED IN THE EARTH" (Ps.46:10 ESV).

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

"WHAT'S FILLING OUR CUPS?"

by Cori Fuller

Have you ever been in the presence of a child who humbled you with a single question or insight? I would say most of us probably have. Children are known for often saying exactly what they think, for better or for worse. However, very often their simple faith can make me long to be more like them. This is probably why Jesus said in Matthew 18:3, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

I would love for us all (myself included!) to learn a bit from our kiddos here at Summit. You might not know that many of our young people decided that they would learn 100 bible verses before Lads to Leaders Convention this coming year. A few have already run far past that initial goal, but they keep going! Others are plugging away at it and come to me each week, or every few weeks, with several new verses to share. Some of the kids have learned 50, 100, even 180 to 200 or more since early this summer! It's amazing to me what their brains soak up like sponges.

It also makes me stop and think. When was I last that hungry to study and memorize the Word? My brain might not be as quick as it once was, but a verse or two a week wouldn't really be that big of a sacrifice for me, would it? What else could I be focusing on that would possibly be more important? In short, when I'm being honest, nothing.

I recently read a post about someone walking with a cup of coffee and getting bumped. Of course, the coffee spilled, and someone asked WHY the coffee spilled. The seemingly obvious answer is because the person was bumped, right? But the point of this story is that coffee spilled because coffee is what filled the cup. What is filling our cups? I pray that when life's bumps hit us, no matter our age, what will spill out will be God's Word. It will take diligence on our parts to put it there first though!

"With my whole heart I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments! I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you." Psalms 119:10-11
