The Sandcastle

Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. Matthew 7:24-25 NIV

Have you ever built a sandcastle on the beach? You put a lot of work into it, but later the tide comes in and washes it all away. When the tide goes back out, there is not even a trace of your masterpiece left. It failed to endure the test of time.

In this life, it is easy for other things to become the center of your attention, and then you start to build everything around that. When the tide rolls in, your life can come tumbling down with it. Jobs end, people change, beauty fades, children grow up, everything that we see with our natural eye is temporary and will change over time. All these have a place in your life, but they cannot be the center. If they are, when they change your life will, too.

Put your trust in God and do not build your life around things that change. Build it around Jesus and then you can still enjoy the rest. Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you (Matt 6:33).

Brothers and sisters, He is the unchanging, everlasting rock, and the ones that trust in Him will not be wiped out when the tide comes in.

Look for a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. Hebrew 11:10

NEW EVERY MORNING

How strange it is to meditate on the newness of creation during the Fall of the year. Yet, that is precisely what is really happening. Unless the old dies the new cannot come to life.

This week I witnessed a soul conversion. Of all the scriptures that could have changed this dying soul – the one that pricked his heart was Romans 6:6.

⁶ Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin (KJV).

From the moment we come out of the baptistry our focus changes to seeking things above where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Because Christ is now our life, we put to death things that will make us “reappear” on earth (Col.3).

Specifically, we put to death: “sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry ... anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. ⁹ Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self (Col.3, ESV).

Father in Heaven, hear our confession. We “have sinned against heaven and before you”. Forgive us, Lord! Allow the old person to fall from us as the leaves are falling all around us. We are so very grateful that your patient love for us never ends. We are eternally thankful that your mercies are without end. We place our eternal hope in the promise that “they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness (Lam.3:22-23). Through Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

“FEAR NO MORE” by Brad Herald

In my The One Year Bible reading plan, I recently read Jeremiah 23:4 (ESV) “I will set shepherds over them who will care for them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be missing, declares the Lord.”

This first reminded me of the chorus in the song “Fear No More” by Building 429 that I have heard on K-Love radio recently:

*Can I believe
When I don't see
Can I really let it be
Out of my hands
Cause it's out of my hands*

*This isn't what I'd choose
But it's where I'm finding you
When I'm broken and undone
Your mercy's just begun
You overcome my doubt*

*Your hands are reaching out
You hold me through the storm
And I will fear no more*

I was then reminded of the main points of Michael Whitworth's lesson on Sunday morning:
Faith believes in the invisible.
Faith beholds the impossible.
Faith braves the unimaginable.
Faith basks in the person, Jesus Christ.

Michael closed his lesson by emphasizing that our Christian faith is believing in a He, not an it!

Jeremiah 23:5-6 (ESV) ⁵“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶ In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: ‘The Lord is our righteousness’.”

As Christians we should trust in God's promises and fix our eyes on Jesus and fear no more!
