CONTINUING TO STUDY

Neville Buchanan

Yesterday I participated in a Tristate Trauma Network event that granted attendees 6 Continuing Education Units (CEU). With these CEU's I receive a discount on my annual Professional Liability Insurance and maintain my Counseling License. Attending these sessions is hard work — yet, it is necessary. Those in the people helping profession are like emotional vacuum cleaners that take in everyone's emotional trauma. However, at least once a year we clean out and process all the trauma that has been taken in.

Christians are also instructed to gain spiritual CEU's. "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim.2:15). We are also commanded to "Let the word of Christ dwell richly" in us by admonishing and teaching one another through song (Col.3:16).

Unfortunately, many lazy or ignorant Christians believe that the hard work related to studying the bible is best left to their "clergy" who have been called to that role. They foolishly believe that their spiritual leaders will never lead them astray.

Friend, the truth is that every book of the New Testament, except Philemon, warns us against doing this. The first Christians were not stupid enough to do this even with an Apostle (Acts 17:11). I have often thought that the solution to the world's religious division would be solved if God removed all the religious leaders and gave the Bible back to the people. But wait, He did!

1 Timothy 2:5 (ESV) — 5 For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

Are you studying the word of God? Do you know how to rightly divide the Word of Truth? Can you give an answer of the hope that lies within you? Do you know enough of the Bible to lead the lost to Christ (using just scriptures)? Or have you placed someone between yourself and God?

"SHALL YOUR BRETHREN GO TO WAR WHILE YOU SIT HERE?" by Steve Proctor

Just before Israel entered the promised land the tribes of Reuben and Gad asked to settle in the land east of the Jordan. Reuben and Gad had a lot of livestock and the land of Jazer and Gilead were great for raising it. So, they wanted to stay where they were instead of crossing over with the rest of the nation.

In Numbers 32 we find Moses' response, "Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here?"

We often find ourselves where we are comfortable and at ease. It's easy for us to look around and see that we pretty well have it made. We have a great deal of freedom to worship and teach as we please. We find great deal of comfort in our current situation. Generally speaking, we find comfort in the work of others. Someone else takes care of the heavy lifting and we are happy to sit where we are; not going backwards, but not moving forward. We're all guilty of it from time to time, including myself more often than I'd like to admit. But we must answer Moses' question, "Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here?"

A spiritual war is raging around and within us. We can't sit by and watch others fight while we sit in safety. Many saints have fought bravely up to this moment. We must be among them. We must take up arms, the word of God, and fight on.

Sitting out only discourages those who fight. Not fighting with our brothers and sisters is just as bad as taking up arms against them.

Be active. Be involved. Fight. Let's not let our brethren go to war while we sit.
