HOW BIG IS GOD?

For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. Colossians 1:19-20

Doesn't it feel good when someone important, who has so many big things to do, stops and pays attention to you for a minute or two? Just being noticed is a really big deal. If it is a celebrity, you might ask for an autograph. If it is a politician, you might offer an opinion on an issue that's important to you. Then we go back to life as it was before.

Recently I was reminded that the universe that we know of is thought to be 27.4 billion light years from one side to the other. That scale is beyond our comprehension. We can try to put it in perspective by making comparisons, but it is no use. It is huge beyond comparison! Now consider that God created all of that with a word. How big, powerful, and wise must he be to do that? And all of that nature was placed in a Son of Man to walk on this tiny speck in the vast universe. Beyond that the Son of Man taught us in terms we can comprehend who God is. And inexplicably the Son of Man humbled himself to die as payment for my treasonous acts against God.

Once we wrap our mind around that truth, we are in the right mindset to worship our God. If we get tongue tied talking to a celebrity, what must it be to not only be noticed by God but to be loved infinitely? Don't settle for the poor facsimiles of God that most people accept: cosmic Santa Clause, senile grandfather, or vengeful tyrant. Encountering God in his essence makes it impossible to go back to life as it was before. And that is the point!

Tom, for the elders

From Neville's Desk...

SURGEON'S SKILLFUL SCALPEL

I love to sing the song: "The great Physician now is near, The sympathizing Jesus; He speaks, the drooping heart to cheer: Oh, hear the voice of Jesus." But I did not enjoy hearing an E.N.T. Physician saying, "it has to go".

For about an hour this past Tuesday a surgeon painstakingly removed a tennis ball sized lipoma from below my left collar bone. Since I chose to remain fully awake, I soon became aware that the tumor had found a comfortable home. Judging from a lot of cutting and pulling, it was not leaving without the SURGEON'S SKILLFUL SCALPEL.

PERSONAL RENAISSANCE by Andrew Ellis

Some changes are occurring in my personal life. For the first time, I will be the only person living in my residence. For the foreseeable future, it will just be my dog and me under the same roof. While this will be a transitional period in my life, I am looking at it as an opportunity for a renaissance. It is a renewal opportunity to not only my living situation but for life in general.

When each of us puts on Christ in baptism, we go through a renewal in our lives. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." The change in our lives when we are baptized is unlike anything else we experience. We put away the things that caused us to sin and walk a new life.

Even though I will be going through an adjustment in my life, I look forward to what the future holds. It is an opportunity to face new challenges and grow in the process. Each of us has an opportunity to have a renaissance of our own. We can have renewal overtime in anything we can think of with the right mindset. There could be many reasons people are afraid of change. It could be uncertainty. It could be fear. It could be that some have become too comfortable with their current situation. What is holding us back from having a renaissance of our own?

At times God is the skillful surgeon asking us, via His scalpel (Heb.4:12), to "tear it out", "cut-off", "expel" or "come out".

- First, we must TEAR OUT the right eye or CUT-OFF the right hand that causes us to sin (Mat.5:29–30).
- Second, we must EXPEL the wicked person from amongst us (1 Cor.5:13).
- And lastly, we must LEAVE our friends, partners, or anything that is breaking our fellowship with God (2 Cor.6:14ff).

Friend, the only sin Jesus cannot forgive is the one you want to hold onto. It is time – it must go!

TRUNK-OR-TREAT

Wednesday, October 30th.

Please plan to decorate your car's trunk and bring treats to hand out (we will allow those decorating their trunks some time before we "release" the kids). Costumes (nothing scary please) can be changed into after service, before we congregate in the north/front parking lot. Please invite your friends, family and neighbors!

News, Notes & Announcements...
