Do It Now!

James 4:14 - Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away.*

What is it that you have been meaning to do? What is that really important thing that you will do when you get around to it, or when you're not quite so busy. Maybe it's connecting with an old friend. Visiting an ailing grandparent. Letting a loved one know how much you care. Telling someone you're sorry or asking for forgiveness. Being baptized to walk in newness of life.

Novelist Fredrik Backman wrote "all people at root are time optimists. We always think there's enough time to do things with other people. Time to say things to them. And then something happens and then we stand there holding on to words like 'if.'"

God's word reminds us over and over again that we shouldn't wait, that we must act now. Jesus told the Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids in Matthew 25 to emphasize that we can't procrastinate and we must always be ready. Jesus says in Matthew 25:13, "Be on the alert then, for you do not know the day nor the hour." In John 9, Jesus tells us again that we shouldn't put things off, especially doing the work of the Lord and obeying God's word. He says in John 9:4, "We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work." James gives us the ultimate reminder that we don't know if tomorrow will ever come so we must act now. In James 4:13-14, James says, "Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.' Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away."

Do not wait until you have more time. Don't stand there holding on to "if." If it's important, do it now!

Daryl, for the elders

A HIGHER PLAIN

Recently I hear a lot about "heart focused meditation" and its link to Christianity. The usual secular and eastern philosophy type of meditation causes the mind and the heart to wander. However, Christian meditation is from the heart and is focused.

When last did you spend even 10 minutes focused (from your heart) on all that God is doing for you. It's a simple exercise of breathing in through the nose for 4 counts and breathing out of the mouth for 6 counts while meditating, from the heart, on feelings of GRATITUDE, APPRECIATION, COMPASSION, and CARE. For instance: Thank you Lord for watching over one of our teens yesterday during the accident. I am so GRATEFUL and feel so blessed that you spared his life.

Friend, if you have been raised with Christ, you should be seeking things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. You should be meditating on things above, not on things on this earth (Colossians 3:1–2 adapted).

When you join Jesus, on higher ground, things of this earth grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace. Doubts, temptation, fears, guilt, and anger slip away as you scale new heights and see His gentle face.

Friend, using your heart, scale the utmost heights so that you may: look upon His gentle face; feel His meekness; experience His compassion; and become infused with the knowledge of His care.

"PATH OF WISDOM" by Brad Herald

Proverbs 3:16-17 "16Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. 17Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace."

Proverbs contains many statements about the benefits of wisdom, including wealth, honor and long life. Instead of guarantees, these statements are general principles and statements about the way life "should be". In a perfect world, wisdom would always lead to these benefits, but in our troubled world, sin intervenes and some of these blessings are delayed until Christ returns and establishes his eternal kingdom.

Hebrews 12:1 "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

We do not need to struggle alone, give up whatever endangers your relationship with God. The race should be to seek wisdom and understanding of God's word, and keep running towards heaven, the destination of our faith.

CHILI COOK OFF

Attention, Chili lovers:

It's the "hottest" ticket in town!

Bring a pot of chili and your appetite to see who has the best chili around!

Rather eat than cook? Just bring your appetite and help judge who will be the winner!

Prizes will be awarded for hottest, most unique, and best overall.

Saturday, November 16
at the church building
6:00 – 8:00 pm

Entry forms and sign up sheet will be on the tables in the foyer.

LADIES FAITH DEVOTIONAL

“LOOKING BACK”

by Nancy Carnes

When I last visited my sister in the care center, she wanted to talk about things she enjoyed in her past. It is sometimes fun to look backward and reminisce about the good times we spent with our family and friends but looking back at some things does no good. Like when we look back on past mistakes and sins.

In “A Christmas Carol”, Marley had to wear a chain with every link a bad choice he had made throughout his life. If I had to wear a chain it would be so long and heavy I wouldn’t be able to move, but in 1 John 1:9 it says, “If we confess our sins he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness”.

Not that we shouldn’t learn from our past sins, but we shouldn’t dwell on them so that it keeps us from reaching forward toward our goal of Heaven.

In Hebrews 8:12 it says, “For I will be merciful to their iniquities and their sins will I remember no more”.

God doesn’t have a reverse. Why should we?
