HEROIN

The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the LORD regretted that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart. - Genesis 6:5-6

Sin is almost never seen for what it really is, until it is too late. Instead, it is portrayed as a choice, a lifestyle, a personal liberty, or a harmless diversion. It is glamorized, justified, even celebrated. Christians know better; sin brings death and separation, not happiness.

Of course, God makes no distinction between big sin and little sin. Every sinful act is rebellion against God's authority in our lives. Even so, the destructive futility of sin is easier to see in some acts than others. Nowhere is the destruction and slavery of sin more visible than with the heroin epidemic sweeping our area. Lives of the guilty and the innocent are daily being destroyed in horrific crashes, overdoses and neglect. The usual remedies of legislation, punishment, education and treatment just don't seem to work on this. Witnessing the destruction of lives and being helpless to change it tempts good hearted people to throw up their hands in frustration and disillusionment. How can something with such power to enslave ever be stopped? Those caught in the addiction are so often unwilling and unable to break free, frustrating those who want to help. What a mess!

Seeing the ugliness and futility of this situation gives us a bit of a view from God's perspective. Imagine God's frustration as he saw his beautiful creation being enslaved over and over following the sin of Adam and Eve - seeing the destruction of sin passed from generation to generation with no end and no remedy. Praise God that he dove headfirst into our mess and made the only way of salvation.

We, the church, have been called out of the mire to be witnesses to the way of salvation. Having been rescued from the pit, we are duty bound to help those still sinking to see the way of salvation. Let's not grow weary in that eternally important task! I pray that the Church will be faithful lights in the darkness pointing the lost and dying world to Christ.

Tom, for the elders

WHY AM I SO DISCOURAGED?

It had been a tough time for John. Because he had stood up for the truth, he was thrown into jail. John's "offense" was calling out King Herod on the issue of Marriage and Divorce. You see, Herod had married Herodias, Philip's wife. I am sure it had seemed to all the world "above board". But not in the eyes of God. Divorce is only allowed for adultery. And like any sin, (homosexuality, adultery, gossip, etc.) repentance was needed. So, Herodias needed to stop being an adulterous and return to her husband, Philip. Well that was not about to happen.

So, John sends a question to Jesus (Matthew 11:2-3): "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?"

When we become discouraged it affects even the most positive areas of our lives.

Friend, are you feeling discouraged? Then listen to Jesus answer: Matthew 11:4-6 (ESV) ... the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. ..."

Jesus tells us to see the growth around us. For instance: Yesterday we had a baptism; Many are being reached from Summit with WBS, counseling, & "Muscle and a Shovel"; etc.

Friend, are you seeing the growth?

A FIRM FOUNDATION

by Brad Herald

In our continued study of "Why I am a Member of the Church of Christ" in the pre-teen class last week, we reviewed how the church was founded by the scriptural builder, Christ.

In Matthew 16:18, Christ promises, "...and upon this rock I will build my church..."

I = personal

Will = is in the future and definite

Build = construction and/or establish

My = possessive and demonstrates ownership

Church = congregation and/or assembly

We also reviewed how the church was founded on the scriptural foundation, Christ.

Eph. 2:20 = Christ as the corner stone

1 Cor. 3:11 = Exclusive foundation, "which is Jesus Christ"

No church can be scriptural unless it was founded by the scriptural builder, Christ.

No church can be scriptural unless it has the scriptural foundation, Christ.

We know that Christ founded the scriptural church, and that the scriptural church must have a scriptural foundation, or otherwise it would not be scriptural. For a church to be scriptural, it must be built upon the foundation of Jesus Christ.

MEMORY SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK

2 Thessalonians 1:6-10 ESV <sup>6</sup> since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, <sup>7</sup> and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels <sup>8</sup> in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup> They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, <sup>10</sup> when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. .
