WHO OR WHAT DO YOU LOVE?

Let's talk about love. Valentine's Day is a day to recognize the special love in your life. (Valentine's Day is also my Dad's birthday.) I hope you had a great day!

If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 John 2:15

Where do we spend all of our time? This was a question David Shannon asked during the Elder's Workshop at Freed Hardeman. David said, "Show me your calendars, show me your bank statement, and what you talk about, and these three things will tell us what we love."

Is your calendar filled with sporting events, travel, parties, etc.? Do you book activities during worship times? Do you schedule and attend fellowship activities? Looking at your calendar will tell you where you spend all of your time!

What will your bank statement tell you? Is it to support your calendar habits? When is the last time you invested in your soul? How long since you attended a Marriage Enrichment Seminar, Youth Rally, Retreat, or bought a good book on the Church? How many entries will be to support your Church?

What are your conversations about? Do you talk about current events, politics, sports? What kind of jokes do you tell? If someone overheard your conversation, would they know you are a Christian; can they tell that you love the Lord?

Brothers and Sisters, the Bible tells us in Mark 12:30 to "love the Lord our God with all of our heart, with all of our soul, with all of our mind."

- Think about loving God with all of our heart (That is what your calendar will tell you)
- Think about loving God with all of our soul (That is what your bank statement will tell us)
- Think about loving God with all of our mind (That is what your conversation will tell you)

God Is Love!

HEALTHY HEART DISCIPLES

This week I went to the Doctor to check up on a potential genetic problem. As a result, I found out that I was low in Vitamin D. However, as soon as I found that out, I researched and started the solution. I did not wait for the Doctor to call back.

Similarly, when we read God's Word it tells us what is wrong and presents us with the solution. For instance, in Matthew 12:33-37, Jesus tells us we can determine our spiritual health by observing what comes out of our mouths. Is it good or evil?

If we are proud and selfish, we will be constantly producing bad fruit like fighting and quarreling; missing or misdirected prayers; lovers of the world; grieving the Holy Spirit; slandering; or boasting about the future (James 4:1-17).

However, if we are humble and generous, we will be constantly producing good fruit like submitting to God; resisting the Devil; repenting; and depending on God for our future (James 4:1-17).

Friend, your heart is sick if you are constantly frustrated. If you are frustrated, then almost certainly you are living the victim and blaming everyone while making excuses. However, your heart is healthy if you are constantly appreciative. Living with appreciation in your heart, even towards your enemies, allows God to give you grace (James 4:6) and to lift you up (James 4:10).

THE BREAKING POINT

by Andrew Ellis

At some point, we will face a breaking point. A breaking point is when we face a situation that could make us divert from our faith. A breaking point could be struggling with temptations, losing a loved one, losing a job, etc. A breaking point can take us in two directions. We will either go on the right path or we will divert and go in the wrong direction. What decision will we make? Do we stay on the right path or go the wrong way? As Christians, we face situations like this all the time. When we are deciding to put Christ on in baptism, we either go down the path that leads to us being baptized or we go down a path of sin. It does not stop at the beginning of our Christian walk. We will experience other breaking points. These situations will test our faith. How will we respond? Are we capable of facing these breaking points?

We are assured that we are capable of handling these situations. 1 Corinthians 10:13 says, "No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it."

No matter how tough these situations are we have the capabilities of overcoming our breaking points! Do not get discouraged or distracted! The challenges we face can make us stronger once we overcome them.
