WHAT SHOULD WE REMEMBER?

Hebrews 12:2 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

My family spent last weekend in Pigeon Forge, TN at the Challenge Youth Conference. We traveled with 24 youth and 9 adults from Summit. While there, we joined 14,000 others who came together to sing songs of praise, learn more about God's word and spend time in fun and fellowship. We met some new people and were reunited with some long-time friends. This was my families' tenth trip to CYC. Every year the experience is both exhausting and exhilarating.

The CYC experience was tremendous. The singing was amazing. We heard some wonderful lessons: on the power of the cross through the resurrection (Reed Swindle), the power of God's word and that the Bible is 'The' book not just 'A' book (Craig Evans), the power of the Spirit working in us (Ralph Gilmore), and the power of God and his message working in our lives (Lonnie Jones).

I know over time the specific lessons will fade in our minds. So, I wonder, a year from now, after this event is long over, what do I want the young people to remember about it?

I want them to remember:

- They have parents that thought this is important enough to send their children there for a weekend
- There are adults who have invested in their lives by spending 3 days chaperoning a trip like this
- They have support from and through the other 24 young people that were on this trip with them
- They are not alone in their Christian walk (14,000 other people came together for the cause of Christ)
- It's important to spend time with God's people and in God's word
- That God wants us in Heaven more than we want to be there (John 3:16, Phil 3:10, I Cor 15:12)

A NEW BIRTH

This week I witnessed a new birth. What a blessing to see this young lady put on Christ in baptism. Based on her confession, that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God, Greg Menetrey baptized his first born – in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, for the forgiveness of her sins and so that she might receive the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

Every Spring I see everything in nature being reborn. It has never changed. And so, too, if we do what the first century church did (Acts 2:38), we become what they became – Christians only.

- We also belong to what they belonged – the church of Christ, Romans 16:16.
- We partake of the Lord's Supper when they did – every first day of the week, Acts 20:7.

- We place money in the collection plates when they did – every first day of the week, 1 Cor. 16:1ff.
- We sing as they did, without musical instruments, other than the heart, Eph.5:19; Col.3:16.
- We have no religious/Bible teacher, leader, rabbi, pastor, reverent, father, other than Jesus Christ, Matthew 23:5-10; 1 Peter 5:4.
- We have no intercessor (neither Mary nor a “saint”) other than Jesus Christ, 1 Tim.2:15.

Friend, do you know that the New Testament church has identifying marks. The above is a very short list (cf. 1 Tim.3). Do you belong to the church described in the New Testament?

AVOID THE MESS THAT IS STRESS

by Andrew Ellis

We all have experienced stress during certain situations in our lives. While these situations differ among us what is the ultimate source of our stress? What is it within us that causes us to stress? Are we afraid of what could happen? Are we unsure of what will happen? No matter the source that leads to our stress it is important to not allow it to consume us. We need to remember two things: 1) We need to focus on what we can control. 2) God will not put us through situations we are not capable of handling. In Matthew 6:31-34, Jesus says, “Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. “Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.”

James 1:12 says, Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.

What good does it do for us to walk through life being held down by stress? We can handle any situation we face. Stressful situations are jump bumps in the road in our lives.

SUMMIT SERVANTS LUGGAGE DRIVE

Summit Servants will be sponsoring a luggage drive for Homeward Bound Youth Shelter. Teens often arrive at the shelter with just the clothes on their back. The shelter buys them the basics while they are in care. The state, however, does not have the financial means to purchase suitcases or duffel bags to pack a child's meager belongings before being brought to the next placement. If they do not have any donated duffel bags/suitcases, social services must use trash bags. It is horrific enough that a child has been abused or neglected, but then to have all his/her belongings placed into a trash bag places a feeling of worthlessness on the child. It makes him/her feel like garbage. Please donate new or gently used luggage or duffel bags. All bags can be placed in the foyer. If you have any questions, please see Denise Henson or Pam Pangburn.
