BE THANKFUL

James 1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above....

In the Teen Zoom class last Wednesday, we watched a video from Dale Jenkins, the preacher at Spring Meadows church of Christ, that reminded us to 'Stay Thankful'. Even in the middle of a global pandemic, most of us have so much for which to be thankful. I think that is a great reminder for all of us.

Dale suggested that remembering our gifts are from God

1. Will help us not misuse our gifts (Matt 25:29)
2. Will help us return the gifts we have to God (Eph 4:28)
3. Will help keep us humble. God has blessed our lives to make us a better person towards others (Gal 6:10)

In a recent article, "7 Habits of the Happiest People," the author included expressing gratitude and keeping a gratitude journal as two of those key habits. It also included choosing kindness and being generous. Being thankful helps us remember how God has blessed us, but also makes us happy.

Let us all remember to be thankful for the blessings we do have.

Let us all use our gifts to bless others. I have seen so much of this from the family at Summit during the pandemic. I am so grateful for the love of this congregation. I look forward to being all together again soon.

Daryl, for the Elders

From Neville's Desk...

OH COME, LET US WORSHIP

Those who survive the Covid-19 pandemic will never forget – or will we? I knew people born in the early 1900's who lived through the 1st World War, 1918 Pandemic, 2nd World War, Korean War, and the Vietnam War. These killed around 160 million. Yet, I never heard the survivors continually speaking about it. I did, however, hear them constantly refer to the Great Depression & Dust Bowl.

And so, here we stand, the most blessed people ever to have lived. And what do we want? I still want, what God's people have always wanted – to stand in the Assembly of the Saints, praising God as together we lift our voices in praise.

THE WAY OUT IS THROUGH
by Steve Proctor

Robert Frost said the best way out is through. The Stoics believe the obstacle is the way.

It's been a trying time for most of us these past few weeks. It will continue to be for a little while longer it seems. We face troubles and bad situations every day. Some days are harder than others. Some days I dare say we don't even notice the troubles for their lightness. Right now, most of us face a strange trial that mostly tries our patience and our ability to let go of our normal lives for a little while. Some of us face financial shortages or a career crisis as the markets take a temporary dive.

There's truth in both the earlier ideas. We've got to go through it. We don't get a choice. The path

Psalm 34:3 ESV Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together! Psalm 95:6 ESV Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

I remember the first time I stepped into a lectureship auditorium and heard 3000 souls praising God. I honestly thought – this must be what heaven will sound like.

Worshipping with the Saints is one of the most moving experiences of my life.

Dear Father in heaven, may we never take for granted the great gift you have given to us through praise. In Jesus' name we pray.

is before us and we have got to take it. The choice we have is how we get through it. Do we do it with grace, patience, strength, and wisdom? Do we try to drown out the frustration with alcohol or other vices?

It's okay to struggle with this. Everyone struggles. The victory is beyond the struggle; it's on the other side of the obstacle. Be sure to take a step back and get a full picture of the obstacle. I assure you, Jesus assures us, it's not as bad as you think, and the reward is greater than you can imagine.

"For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal." (II Corinthians 4:17-18)
