A NEW BEGINNING?

2 John 1:5 Not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning that we love one another. And this is love that we walk according to His commandments.

Together again! Many of us will come together this Lord's day to worship in one place for the first time in eleven weeks. Many will continue to worship from home, together in Spirit. Our worship service will look a little different. Our time together may be a little different. We wonder, what will life be like as we move forward? The answer is, no one knows for sure. We do know a couple of things, though.

One, we need to maintain our connections. The thing many of us missed the most was being able to be with God's people, worshiping, fellowshiping and working together. Social isolation has the same physical effect on us as smoking 15 cigarettes a day. We need each other and we need to be together. That's why God gave us the Church and why Jesus referred to "those that do the will of my Father" as His family.

Two, there will continue to be a great need to serve others around us. Unemployment is at an all-time high with over 40M people unemployed. Overdoses have surged in many places. Mental health issues are soaring. The suicide rate typically increases significantly (.78 points) for each 1% increase in the unemployment rate, according to Psychology Today. We are surrounded by a world that desperately needs love and hope.

Henry Ford said, "Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success." What a great opportunity for us to come together again and work together to love and serve those around us.

WE CAN CHANGE OUR WORLD

Six years ago I saw Travis Maxey do his part to change the world we live in. What did it take for him to complete 24 hours of free-throws?

First, it started with a relationship. Travis's sister-in-law works for Judi's place. Second, it took "buying-in" to the vision. Travis agreed that children deserve a place to feel safe, 24 hours a day, away from injustice and abuse. Third, it took wisdom. Travis needed to figure out what it would take to get prepared for the event and how to accomplish the fundraising. Fourth, it took faith and hard work.

How about the rest of us? What is our vision for the future – what do we feel passionate about? Do we want to see the precious body of Christ grow in the Northern Kentucky Cincinnati area? Do we want to see our attendance and mission efforts increasing? Do we want to see a friend baptized?

My passion is to see the Summit Church of Christ grow. For this to happen each of us needs to, through faith, envision how Summit will be different one year from today. For instance: See your friend, who is currently not saved, faithfully worshipping next to you.

Hebrews 11:1 (ESV) — 1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Travis wanted to make a difference, and he did. Friend, how can you make a difference?

I'VE MISSED YOU

Nancy Carnes

Deuteronomy 31:8 ESV ⁸It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.

You don't know what you'll miss until it is gone. Since being away I have realized how much I have taken for granted and all the things I have missed. Like how much I loved fellowship and interaction with others, all the smiles and laughter, the hugs, all our voices singing, praying, and taking communion together. I missed the compassion I saw and heard for those who were hurting, the giving of love, and doing things that needed done. I even missed the teasing (mainly from Chris and Buck) but mostly I have missed being with the church family I love.

Being away may have been good for my physical health, but not for my spiritual health. The important things in my life have been on hold. It is so good to see everyone face to face because I have missed you every day. I am so thankful for you and pray God's richest blessings for you all. I pray we will not need to worship apart again. I know God is in control, God is good, and He loves us the most. Oh, what a wonderful day!
