BE THE LIGHT!

Billy Herald

You are the light of the world, a city set on a hill cannot be hid.

Matthew 5:14

We sing a song that says there's a call come ringing over the restless waves to "Send the Light". We are the light! Do we let our light shine? Would your coworkers or your fellow students or neighbors know you are a Christian? Actions speak louder than words. Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount, told us to let our light shine wherever we go. We should let our light shine at home, school, ballfield, vacation and wherever we go. Let me encourage to let our lives reflect a Christian life so we can glorify our Heavenly Father.

For at one time you were in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord, walk as children of light. Eph.5:8

If we are to walk as children of light, we must seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness. Matt.6:33

We must turn our lives away from anything that resembles darkness. Which could be sin, disobedience, and wanting to be like the world around us. We must commit to living a good Christian life and living in the light.

But if we walk in the Light, as He is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin. 1 John 1:7

Brothers and Sisters, be a bright and shining star in this dark and evil world. (Phil 2:15). Be in prayer that Summit will be a light in the community and in the darkness of evil.

Pray that we will "Be that Light".

From Neville's Desk...

THE LAST FRONTIER

As Jesus was leaving this world to join His Father in Heaven, He left us these words: Acts 1:6-9 (ESV) — "... 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." ...

Douwene and I have just returned from "the end of the earth". Alaska is beautiful and is filled with friendly people. It was bought by the USA from Russia in 1959 for $7.2 million. The 731,545 population inhabit an area bigger than Texas, California, and Montana combined!

Ben lives ten miles outside Anchorage in a place called Eagle River. The church he preaches for, Spring Brook Church of Christ, is very active and growing. He also works with many of the other churches of Christ in the area – and is loved by all. On Sunday night, as we pulled up to the large Valley church of Christ, at least ten young people poured out of the building to welcome and hug Ben.

It is a comfort to know that, through our work in Alaska, we are spreading the Gospel to the end of the earth.

MALE FRIENDSHIP

Robert Murphy

"A friend loves at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity."

True friends are one of the greatest blessings on this earth, partially because they are so rare. In order to be a good friend to someone, you have to open up to them. This is a serious problem in men, especially. Men often enjoy helping others, but they rarely open themselves up and show their emotional or physical suffering. We men do not open ourselves up about our weaknesses to other Christian men because we fear their judgment. Also, we do not want to bring up our weakness because we hate these aspects of ourselves and are ashamed.

While embarrassment and shame can be good motivators to change, these often cripple us. Therefore, our reasons for closing ourselves off from other men are greatly and tragically ironic. We fear this judgment from other men – other men who struggle with the same things we do and may even be worse off than we are. We do not want to feel the embarrassment of others looking at our weakness, but this just means we will continue to be weak. I could go on about how many advantages there are to mutually sharing your struggles with one or two other men, but I will leave it at this.

I am writing this as I look forward to the men's retreat, which, if you are reading this, has already happened. I hope that the weekend is one of greater intimacy and we can grow to become friends and brothers who will undergo adversity together.
