TRUE WISDOM

Brad Herald

Have you ever known anyone who claimed to be wise, but spoke and acted foolishly? Their contradictory speech and actions often puzzle us.

James 3: 5 (NIV) "Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark."

In James chapter 3, James compares the destruction the uncontrolled tongue can do to a raging fire, you can neither control nor reverse the damage it can do. What you say and what you do not say are both important. Proper speech is not only saying the right words at the right time, but it is also controlling your desire to say what you shouldn't.

At times our own words are right and pleasing to God, but at other times, they are destructive and violent. Which of these speech patterns reflects our true identity? Just as you can identify a tree by the type of fruit it produces, you can evaluate your wisdom by the way you act.

James 3:13 (NIV) "Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom."

True wisdom can be measured by the depth of a person's character. Foolishness leads to disorder, but wisdom leads to peace and goodness.

James 3:17 (NIV) "But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere."

Wisdom shows itself in wise speech. Careful speech and wise, loving words are the seeds of peace. The wisdom of God that helps control the tongue can help control our actions too. Seeking and accepting God's wisdom will affect your speech and actions. Your words and deeds will convey humility, reveal the truth, and reap a harvest of righteousness.

SHARING AND COMMUNITY

Robert Murphy

And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common; and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need (Acts 2:44-45)

Summit Church of Christ is a part of a historic movement dedicated to becoming more like the primitive Christians; Christians who had no building, no pews, no budget meetings. However, when I read the above verses, I am both challenged and troubled. How can we be more like these Christians who renounced consumerism and personal gain? How can we be more of a community? There are numerous obstacles blocking us from having the kind of fellowship we see in the following verse, where Christians met day by day in the temple and broke bread in each other's houses (v. 46). We only meet once a week, or, if we make the extra effort, once more on Wednesday evenings. We only occasionally break bread in one another's houses. Why? Because we are busy, we have not made it a priority or a habit. We spend far more time reading the vanities of social media than reading the Scriptures together as a community.

I am going to challenge myself to do better with this. I will spend more time with my brothers and sisters so that I can know and love them more. I will allocate more of my money to my heavenly family so that if there are any needs that arise, we can easily take care of them. I will buy less so I can give more. Will you join me in God's calling to live more as a loving, Christ-centered community?

LADS TO LEADERS

We are gearing up for our annual Lads to Leaders participation! After the complications of the last couple of years, we are hoping to make this a great year. We are also working to involve as many people as possible from Summit. Lads to Leaders is intended to be something for the whole congregation to participate in. It is to bring us together, learning together, serving together, working together. It has so many wonderful options to help us do that!

What gifts do you have? What do you already know how to do that you could teach a younger person about? Is there an area of your own spiritual walk that would like to work on and participating in an event here could help you do so? Below are some ideas of ways you could be involved:

- Commit to reading through either the old or New Testament
- Commit to memorizing 100 scriptures for Centurion of Scripture
- Be an accountability partner for a student who has committed to Centurion on Scripture
- Choose an area of interest or expertise in the Keepers or Providers categories and mentor some kids in that category
- Mentor a student through preparing for their speech, song leading/songs of praise, or debate
- Help lead/plan an activity for Good Samaritan
- Mentor a student in a topic related to power point, blogging, podcasts or some other mass communication formats

Thank you for considering! If you are interested in participating or have any questions, please see Cori Fuller. Sign-up sheets are available on the lobby bulletin board (near the women's restroom.)
