YOUR INVITATION

Bill Herald

Today is the first Sunday of the "New Year." Today is January 2, 2022. Have you made any resolutions? Why don't you start the new year out with your brothers and sisters? Today is our first fellowship meal of the new year, let me extend an open Invitation to have lunch with us this morning, instead of going to Frisch's or Wendy's. If your resolution was to diet, I brought a big salad! Don't feel bad if you didn't bring anything because we usually have plenty of food, so that we are able to invite our visitors.

Summit's theme for this year is Family. We want everyone to feel at home at Summit and to be part of our family. Let's start today to be a bigger part of each other's lives, to know each other better. We all have different gifts and abilities! As a family we need to know each other's weaknesses, strengths, and abilities. That cannot be accomplished unless we spend time with each other. Joining us for the fellowship meal today is a good way to start. If we look at the group of believers in Acts 2, they had everything in common with each other and "ATE" together. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! Psalm 133:1

We had a great new year eve's get together at the Guin's (thanks for your hospitality) we played games and got to know each other better through fellowship. Then we started the new year together in song and prayer to our Lord and Savior.

Brothers and Sisters, Let's start the new year out right. Challenge yourself to speak with someone different each service you attend. Call or text someone in the congregation and let them know you are thinking of them, praying for them. Make plans to meet for coffee or invite them to dinner. Let's keep 2022 on a great path!

You can start TODAY by eating with your church family!

You Are Officially "INVITED"

From Neville's Desk...

HIS HUMBLE HOLY HANDS

Have you noticed all the different types of hands? A baby has small, soft, and chubby hands. But then you get a professional basketball player with huge hands.

Now, I want you to think about the hands of Jesus. Can you see him as a baby in a manger? Can you see His gentle, soft, innocent little hands? But keep looking and you will notice his hands change. They become the rough, tough, and calloused hands of a carpenter. But finally, you will notice His hands become that of a healer.

Matthew 8:1 (ESV) When he came down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. 2 And behold, a leper came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." 3 And Jesus STRETCHED OUT HIS HAND AND TOUCHED HIM, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Coming out of COVID I have a slight understanding of what it would have felt like to be isolated because of a highly contagious and deadly virus. But even in my isolation I always had access to those hands. Except, now they were different. Now they bore the marks of calvary's cruel nails.

THE MASTER

Nancy Carnes

- When you stand before the Master, what will you say when He asks why?
- Why did you hear, but didn't listen?
- Why did you cry out to me when you were in trouble, but ignore me when things were good?
- Why didn't you tell someone about me?
- Why didn't you speak my name?
- Why didn't you pray as you should?
- Why didn't you open your Bible and read?

- Why did you speak praises from your mouth, but not from your heart?
- Why didn't you do the work of the Lord?
- Why didn't you reach out to someone in need?
- Why did you seek the pleasures of the world?
- Why didn't you follow my directions?
- Why didn't you choose me? I am the Way.

John 14:6 I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me.
