STRONG MARRIAGES AND STRONG FAMILIES

Daryl Denham

"Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband. Ephesians 5:31-33

My new friend, Trey Morgan, a preacher in the Lord's church in Texas tweeted the other day, "Why should every church be actively involved in building healthy marriages and families? Because healthy marriages make healthy families, and those healthy families make:

Healthy choices

Healthy schools

Healthy communities

Healthy states and a

Healthy nation and world."

Can I get an Amen? Perhaps the greatest plague on, the greatest threat to, American society is the breakdown of the traditional family. Our theme at Summit for 2022 is Our Family. We will focus on the family of God, our responsibilities and our relationships, as well as our earthly families, and those responsibilities and relationships.

On April 30th, we are scheduled to host a Parenting and Family workshop with Adam and Leah Faughn. Tentatively scheduled to be morning to mid-afternoon. We hope to have a schedule and promotional materials available in the next few days. If you are married, or plan to be married at some point, with children or without children, we hope you will make plans to attend.

Trey Morgan, and his wife Lea, are scheduled to be at Summit in 2024 to host their Stronger Marriages workshop. You can follow them on social media: Facebook at StrongerMarriageWorkshops, Instagram Stronger_Marriages, and Twitter at StrongMarriage5. They are a great follow for any married couple or anyone in a relationship.

We think one of the most important things we can do is encourage and support stronger relationships in marriages and families. We pray that you will support all of the efforts and please let us know what else we can do to make an even greater impact on our families.

OUR SPIRITUAL CONTEST

Robert Murphy

Winning a competition is extremely satisfying. After all the hard work you put into practicing your art, you not only overcome your adversary, but you also overcome yourself. In this way, winning does not just mean that you come in first place. Sometimes winning just means you overcame the odds. In the first Rocky movie, Rocky does not win the heavyweight title, but he still won in the sense that he “went the distance” and fought for fifteen rounds against a superior opponent.

Similarly, our spiritual contest is not about dominating others and competing with others. Rather, it is simply about having the endurance to go the distance. In a sense, Jesus has already conquered our adversary and hindered Satan from defeating us. While Satan still works to sabotage our success, ultimately, we have everything we need to defeat him. John assures us of this (1 John 5:4).

I love to look at the first Rocky movie as an allegory for my spiritual journey. The guy was punched in the face more times than humanly possible. His face looked like a purple balloon. Yet he kept on getting back up off the mat. He kept fighting. He went the distance despite his extreme injuries. Likewise, “we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed... constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifest in our mortal flesh” (2 Cor 4:8, 9, 11). I hope that every time you get knocked down, you choose to rise up again. Even if you are bloody and bruised, all that matters is that you finish the race.

Fear or Faith

Nancy Carnes

John 1:6 & 14:27; Matthew 17:20;

Psalms 27:1 & 34:4

- Fear doubts; Faith believes
- Fear weakens us; Faith strengthens us
- Fear makes us hesitate; Faith keeps us going
- Fear discourages; Faith encourages
- Fear tells us we can't; Faith tell us we can
- Fear holds us back; Faith leads us on
- Fear hurts; Faith heals
- Fear causes unrest; Faith gives peace
- Fear keeps us in prison; Faith sets us free

- Fear is quicksand; Faith is solid rock

We all have fears. One of mine is a fear of chickens so I carry a weapon, usually a broom or stick, for protection. When we let fear override our faith it can crush our spirit and make us vulnerable allowing Satan to move in and take charge of our lives. Our weapon is a strong faith in God. It gives us the courage to move forward without fear. Fear can destroy, but our faith gives us the victory over fear. Faith can move mountains!
