VICTORIOUS FAITH

Billy Herald

Blessed are those who die in the Lord. Rev 14:13

This week we say goodbye to one of our own, Woody Turner. Woody and his wife Ella, are faithful members at Summit. Woody's battle with cancer is finally over. Woody fought it as long as he could until Tuesday Feb.15 at 2:10 am. Woody has gone to a place prepared for him by his Lord and Savior, a place with many rooms, a place with no more pain, no more suffering.

Woody was 85 years old, and he and Ella just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. This shows what kind of man Woody is, a man true to his God and his wife. Woody liked the outdoors, he loved to squirrel hunt and to garden. Many times, Woody would walk around his farm in Berry, KY just enjoying God's creation. When Woody was at the building you could always find him in the lobby talking to anyone about his Kentucky Wildcats. So do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed, for I am your God, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

Brothers and Sisters, we say goodbye to our dear friend, but we know we will see him again. No, in all things we are more than conquerors through Him Whom loves us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, not anything in all creation, will be able to SEPARATE US FROM THE LOVE OF GOD THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS OUR LORD. Rom 8:37-39.

Till we meet again, goodbye my brother.

From Neville's Desk...

CAN YOU SPEAK UP FOR GOD?

For the last two days I have been leading discussions on the importance of "contending for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3).

It seems we live in a day when the world is influencing Christians more than Christians are influencing the world. The main reason seems to be that, through a relentless desensitization program, Christians have become acceptable of evil. For instance, how many of you have seen "Christians" using "OMG" in their social media posts. Friend, when you use the Lord's name irreverently you are violating a commandment: "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain" (Exodus 20:7).

I believe the solution is to stand up for God. Be His voice in the face of opposition. If, however, we are ashamed of Christ (Rom.1:16), not willing to acknowledge Him before men, then He will also deny us before His Father who is in heaven (Mt.10:32f).

BIBLICAL MASCULINITY

Robert Murphy

In recent years, many have grown concerned about the lack of "manliness" in our society. Men seem to have lost touch with the masculine energy that has helped perpetuate humanity and was a defining characteristic of the "Greatest Generation." Our modern conveniences have caused men to grow lazy and insulate (or, better, isolate) themselves from their community. Men can go through life without contributing anything to society and simply going to work for the bare minimum amount of time, living in their mothers' basements, and playing games in their ample free time. There have been movements to try and counteract this decrease of "masculinity" by challenging and educating men on how to be men instead of boys in men's bodies. They draw from anthropology, psychology, and other social sciences to help reestablish this construct of masculinity that helped serve the world rather than serve themselves.

Yet, we need only the Bible to be our guide for defining masculinity. Often times, the Bible's portrayal of masculinity is the opposite of what the cultures of the world practice. Jesus as the archetypal human and man shows us that masculinity is not defined by violence, ambition, and self-sufficiency. Jesus teaches us that true masculinity is peaceful, loving, humble, selfless, and completely dependent on the Father. Furthermore, to put it in Jungian terms, Jesus is also the embodiment of the masculine archetypes of king, warrior, "magician," and lover. He is king, not by being a tyrant, but by serving others. He is a warrior, not by slaying his enemies, but by defeating the chaos and evil of this world through self-sacrifice. He is "magician" by depending upon God and the Holy Spirit for empowerment and wisdom rather than himself. He is a "lover" not by being a womanizer but by selflessly serving everyone, including sinners, the marginalized, and even his enemies.
