HOPE

George Reagan

It was time to prepare and leave. The door frames were marked with the blood of a lamb. The perfect time, people and leadership were in place. It happened: the fulfillment of the promise. The ransom price was paid for their deliverance from bondage. They were never to forget the event and the hope of deliverance. The Passover was to be remembered. The reason is: "Because the Lord kept vigil that night to bring them out of Egypt, on this night all the Israelites are to keep vigil to honor the Lord for the generations to come." (Exodus 12:42) Each year they were to remember Passover, regain the hope and rededicate themselves. It was not open to foreigners, hired workers or visitors. They had to be excluded.

Hope is placed in our hearts to help us walk throughout life and endure what is placed before us. It is an understanding that all is not lost. We look forward and see we can endure. We can enjoy the creation. You remember John 1:1-5, the hope for mankind was always present. As time passed, mankind either ignored or forgot what our Lord and God had done and would do. But God did not forget.

Again, the time was right. The people, leadership and attitude were in place. It was the time for all mankind to prepare for the journey. Israel and Rome in their twisted and stubborn misunderstanding, offered the Lamb, which provided our hope. They took the Chosen One and pushed, led, abused, and forced Him out of the city while He carried all the evil, wrong doings, and sins of mankind on his back. They killed the Lamb.

The event is not to be forgotten. Once a year is not enough. It is so important that each week we remember. All can participate and no one is turned away. Our Lord fulfilled the wishes of the Father. He is The First Born; The Passover Lamb; The Perfect One; The Holy One. It was His blood that fell to the earth, cleansing and sanctifying us before the LORD GOD ALMIGHTY. Jesus was placed in a tomb and it was sealed shut with a large rock. Three days later, the rock was removed. The tomb was empty. The Lamb had arose and is alive. That is why our hope is in the empty tomb and not the rock that sealed it.

BARE NECESSITIES

I love the scene in the "Jungle Book" where Baloo is teaching Mowgli the "Bare Necessities of life". Can you, friend, explain to your friends and loved ones what the minimum requirements are to eternal life?

First, follow the path that leads to eternal life:

1. Hear the Gospel. (Romans 10:17, John 8:32)
2. Believe the Gospel (Hebrews 11:6, John 20:31)
3. Repent of past sins (Luke 13:3, Acts 17:30)
4. Confess faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:10, Matthew 10:32)
5. Be Baptized (Galatians 3:27, Mark 16:16, Acts 2:38)
6. Be faithful unto death (Revelation 2:10)

IS THE BIBLE INSPIRED?

Robert Murphy

The short answer is 'yes'! The longer answer comes from 2 Timothy 3:16, "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work" (ESV). However, we often picture inspiration as God overriding the mind of the biblical author. If not that, then we picture the authors as dictating exact phrases uttered from an angel or God. While this may have been the case in some instances among the prophets and John the Revelator, we know that this was not the case for the majority of scripture.

Inspiration should be seen as a process rather than an event, in most cases. Even after one of the biblical authors wrote something down, that

Second, faithfully worship God till the day you die:

1. Teaching/Preaching (1 Cor 4:17)
2. Singing without instruments (Eph 5:19)
3. Prayer (Acts 12:5)
4. Taking A Collection- Sunday only (1 Cor 16:1-2)
5. Lord's Supper- Sunday only (Acts 20:7)

Third, constantly choose to do the right thing (James 4:17). However, even on our best day we will need God's grace. So, constantly confess your sins before God.

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name (Mt.6:9). We confess our sins before you, knowing you are faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 Jn.1:9). In Jesus name, amen.

document could be changed later by the author or someone else. Look at the book of Psalms, for instance. It is a collection of different poems written over a very long period of time. Proverbs is also a compilation of wise sayings from different figures in Israel (and even broader ancient Near Eastern wisdom). We also see that the biblical authors rely on external witnesses, be they literary (e.g., Josh 10:13) or personal (perhaps Luke 1:2).

This shows that God works throughout history and guides history to create a certain outcome. We are not always able to tangibly prove God's involvement. Nevertheless, He is involved. It takes faith to believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, for it involved several human processes, including thinking of what to write, what to include, what to edit in or out. Yet God oversees and is involved in the whole process. We can confidently look at what was written by humans and also know that it was simultaneously "breathed out by God".
