WHAT DO WE ALLOW?

Andrew Ellis

This time of year, I travel a lot for many reasons. During my time driving on these trips, I listen to podcasts. Listening to podcasts helps me stay entertained during long drives. Like many of you reading this, I listen to different podcasts on many subjects. In general, the podcasts I listen to are either for entertainment purposes or to be informative. In a way, the podcasts I listen to serve a purpose. With podcasts, I either find entertainment, or I can take something away that can help me in the future. With so many podcasts out there, I am mindful of what is available. There might be podcasts that do not fit the criteria I mentioned. There could be options that may not be the best for Christians to consume.

There are so many entertainment options that are easily accessible. These can be accessed through many devices common for many people. Some options are suitable for Christians. Some options may not be the best for Christians. We know that who we spend our time with can impact us. 1 Corinthians 15:33 says, "Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals." Is what we consume benefiting us or becoming a disservice to us? Are we being mindful of what we consume as it pertains to our choices for entertainment? It is important to be mindful of the content we consume regularly. Let us take a look at Ephesians 5. Verses 11-12 say, "Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret." In other words, not only should we avoid unfruitful activities, but we need to expose them not just for our benefit but for the benefit of others.

It is natural for us to look for different avenues of entertainment. Each of us has differing preferences in what we want to consume. We need to be aware of what we go to for entertainment. Is it causing more harm than good? Let us be mindful of what we allow in our lives.

From Neville's Desk...

A GOOD SOLDIER

This month God's Army is getting ready to receive their SECRET SERVICE Christians back. These CEO Christians make their Religious Pilgrimage back twice a year for the obligatory CHRISTMAS EASTER ONLY services.

Unfortunately, God pruned off this SECRET SERVICE branch. Instead, he is calling all of us to be "good soldiers of Christ Jesus".

2 Timothy 2:1-4 (ESV) — ¹ You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, ² and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. ³ Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. ⁴ No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him.

So, if I understand the Apostle Paul correctly, A GOOD SOLDIER ...

- is strengthened by God's grace
- passes on the good news
- shares in Christ's suffering
- does not get entangled in civilian pursuits
- aims to please Jesus Christ

Friend, are you a GOOD SOLDIER? God is asking: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Will you answer, "Here I am! Send me" (Isaiah 6:8)?

RESTORATION MOVEMENT

Robert Murphy

Our congregation is a part of a religious movement in the nineteenth century often called the "Restoration Movement." The main focus of this movement was to get back to the Bible and to reject traditions that suppressed biblical truth. It led to a further emphasis on water baptism as the rite which inaugurates a person's salvation from God. It also emphasized taking the Lord's Supper every week. This movement had a wide variety of views and had a significant amount of development in certain areas (such as a move from post-millennialism to amillennialism).

While there has been a restoration of core doctrines from the New Testament, the church still struggles with restoring the Spirit that empowered the apostles and early church. Our worship may be by "the Book," but are we constantly reflecting as individuals and as a congregation on whether our worship is focused on God's glory? We may be singing with our lips, but are we singing with our soul? We may take the Lord's Supper every Sunday, but is it with the same attitude and in the same manner as the New Testament church? We may lead a prayer, but is that prayer sincere? Are we just repeating the same requests out of habit or are we truly cognizant that we are speaking before the Creator? If we are doing the right actions emptily, our worship is unacceptable before God (Isa 29:13-14).

There are three ways we can continue to restore New Testament Christianity. First, we must always prepare our minds and hearts throughout the week for worship. When we go to worship, we are the Temple of God. We should be in awe because we are in the presence of the Almighty. This requires preparation on everyone's part, not just the worship leaders. Second, we need to constantly reflect on our worship as individuals and as a Church. We must catch ourselves when our minds drift off during prayers. We should be honest with ourselves if our mind is on the football game rather than on worshipping the Lord. Third, we must constantly reevaluate our traditions to make sure that our traditions not only are in line with the letter of the Scripture, but also help us keep the intention of Scripture. This requires study and humility in admitting that the way we do things now may not be the best way.
