THE SON

George Reagan

The relationship between father and son is special, especially the first-born. There can be closeness, affection, honor, love, admiration, protection and the list could continue to the end of time. However, the opposite is true in some families.

The story of Abraham and Isaac shows the type of relationship God wants. That relationship started with the Lord and Abraham. Genesis 15, God revealed to Abram (as Abraham was first called) a promise: ⁵"Look up into the sky and count the stars if you can. That's how many descendants you will have!" ⁶"And Abram believed the Lord, and the Lord counted him as righteous because of his faith." It was that faith that allowed Abraham to receive a covenant from the Lord God Almighty.

In Genesis 22, Abraham has his faith and righteousness tested. The Lord asked Abraham to give his son back to Him as a blood sacrifice. As they left their tents with the wood, fire and knife, Isaac asked his father where was the sacrificial lamb. Abraham's reply was "God will provide a sheep for the burnt offering, my son".

For three days they traveled to the place the Lord had told them to go. I am sure that during those three days, Abraham's thoughts were confused. This was his son whom he loved, the hope of the covenant between him and God. Three days to consider his son as dead. As the knife was about to fall, his hand was stopped and the sacrificial lamb was provided. An angel from the God said to Abraham: ¹²"Don't lay a hand on the boy!" ... "Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God. You have not withheld from me even your son, your only son." ¹⁸"And through your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed—all because you have obeyed me."

Our God does not ask for our sons as sacrifices, instead He gave us His only Son, whom He love and cherished. God did not stop the "knife in hand" this time. For three days He considered Him dead and then brought Him back. Our Jesus became the blessing for all of mankind.

May the Lord bless you and protect you. May the Lord smile on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord show you his favor and give you his peace. (NUM 6:24-26)

AMEN

From Neville's Desk...

FIND IT!

What are you doing to keep our world safe? For the last year I have been training my attack dog (Ruffels) to find "drugs". I do that by hiding his allergy medication (drugs) in a piece of hotdog sausage.

God never expected us to train our dogs to "enter the Christian race". Instead, He wants us to personally get involved. For this reason, after presenting us with a host of heroes to imitate (Hebrews 11), we are asked to consider His Son's example. By fixing our eyes on Jesus we will see the start and finish of our faith. We will see how He endured the cross by focusing on the joy that would be His. As a result, He is now at God's right hand.

Friend, how can you know if you are running the Christian Race correctly? Simple ... we are given three commands to follow (Hebrews 12:14-15):

1. Strive for "peace with everyone".
2. Strive for "holiness" (we can't see the Lord without it).
3. Keep out the troubling and defiling "root of bitterness".

With the command, "find it", Ruffels always starts enthusiastically, but after five minutes he looks to me for help. When this is not forth coming his nose starts to work – and soon he finds the prize.

Friend, God has given us everything we need. The world would be a safer place if all Christians were actively striving for the prize.

IT TAKES COURAGE

Nancy Carnes

Deuteronomy 31:6

When we think of what takes courage, we think- and rightly so- of our men and women in the armed forces and our first responders, but there are other kinds of courage too.

It takes courage to stand before a congregation to teach and preach from the Word. It takes courage for teens to stand firm in their beliefs. It takes courage for young people to keep their faith when out in the world. It takes courage to move from the known and forward to the unknown. It takes courage sometimes to just walk away. It takes great courage for a parent to sit by the bed of a dying child.

What about the courage it took for a young woman to leave her family and home to follow her mother-in-law to a foreign land, or a queen to face her king and ask to save the lives of her people?

What about the courage it took our King to stand before an angry crowd and silently be condemned to walk up that hill to die on a cross for our sins?

In this world today, it takes courage to bow down to the will of the Lord and stand up for Jesus.
