HONEY

George Reagan

I really like honey. It is not only the taste, but also the smell and the memories of my childhood. I remember my grandfather's beehives, the smell of the old smokehouse after the frames were cleaned. I can still see in my mind's eye, my grandmother pressing the honey thru a sieve into mason jars and handing me a piece of honeycomb to chew on. I really like honey.

Many consider honey a medicinal source as well. You have a cough, take a spoonful of honey. Is your disposition sour, take a spoonful of honey. Do you have allergies, take a spoonful of local honey each day.

Honey is mentioned in the Bible 62 times. Remember, John the Baptist's diet consisted of locusts and wild honey. Proverbs 24:13-14 states:

"<sup>13</sup>Eat honey, my son, for it is good; honey from the comb is sweet to your taste. <sup>14</sup>Know also that wisdom is like honey for you: If you find it, there is a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off."

We listen to or "turn an ear" to wise sayings. The following appeared in the Cedar Grove Church (Fairburn, Ga.) bulletin:

When entrusted with a secret, keep it. It's never too late for an apology. Look people in the eye when you thank them. If you have made your point, stop talking. Words may lie, but actions will always tell the truth. An hour spent with grandparents is time well spent. A clean conscience makes a soft pillow. Sorrow looks back, Worry looks around, FAITH looks up! Compassion is difficult to give away because it keeps coming back.

The words of God are far more important than what I listed above. David wrote in Psalms 19 that the decrees of the Lord were sweeter than honey from the honeycomb. The words of the Lord can sooth a troubled soul, lift a sagging spirit, replenish the oil in our lamp, give joy to our heart, and give us warmth.

Solomon wrote in Ecclesiastes 12: 12-13:

...<sup>12</sup>Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body. <sup>13</sup>Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind.

These are the sweetest and wisest words of all.

From Neville's Desk...

TELL ME THE OLD, OLD STORY

I recently asked a suffering soul to tell me how he knew he was saved. From what he told me it was obvious that he had not been saved – but merely dry cleaned.

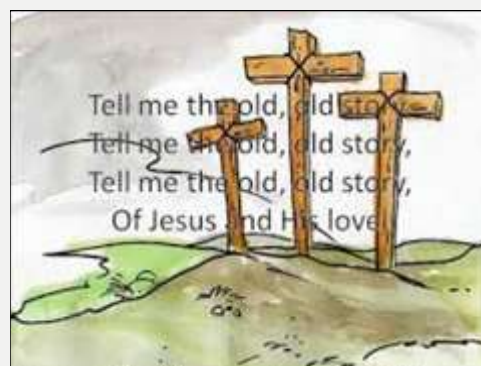

Friend, can you tell the old, old story of Jesus and His love? In Acts 10:34-43 you read about it:

- He came to be baptized by John (:37).
- At that moment “God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power” (:38).
- “They put him to death by hanging him on a tree” (:39)
- “But God raised him on the third day” (:40)
- “And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead” (:42)

Once you know the story of Jesus you realize that being a Christian is NOT something that you are REFORMED into BUT a new TRANSFORMATIONAL birth into Jesus (Rom.6:3; Gal.3:27; John 3:3-5).

It is for this reason that after telling the old, old story, Peter commanded... “them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ...” (Acts 10:48).

FOREVER STRIVING

Robert Murphy

Contentment is an important component of Christian living. We do not need to continuously strive for a better job, a better house, a better car, a better vacation, or a better bank account. We should be content in all our circumstances as Christians. In fact, Paul speaks of contentment in all circumstances when he writes, “I can do all things through the One who strengthens me” (Phil 4:13).

Nevertheless, in the same letter, Paul does say one thing that he strives for and longs after. He is willing to throw everything aside – money, status, power, friendships, his life – to attain this goal. He strives for this:

“That I may know [Christ] and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.” (Phil 3:10–14, ESV; emphasis mine).

Brothers and sisters, we are no longer our own. We are paradoxically both slaves and sons of the Creator of the universe. We were bought at a price (1 Cor 6:20). We need to lay aside every weight that hinders us from attaining this goal which Paul sets before himself and before us. I realized that I needed to sell my video game console because I knew that it wastes my time. I also realized I need to watch less TV and spend time benefiting to others or myself. I need to spend less money on things I want and give more to the poor. I need to stop seeking sources of pleasure and be satisfied in Yahweh, in whose presence is “fullness of joy” and in whose hand is “pleasures forever” (Ps 16:11). This is the best life you and I can live in this world. Why settle for less?
